The Handbook of Media Education Research Divina Frau-Meigs, Sirkku Kotilainen, Manisha Pathak-Shelat, Michael Hoechsmann, Stuart R. Poyntz, 2020-09-23 Over the past forty years media education research has emerged as a historical epistemological and practical field of study Shifts in the field along with radical transformations in media technologies aesthetic forms ownership models and audience participation practices have driven the application of new concepts and theories across a range of both school and non school settings The Handbook on Media Education Research is a unique exploration of the complex set of practices theories and tools of media research Featuring contributions from a diverse range of internationally recognized experts and practitioners this timely volume discusses recent developments in the field in the context of related scholarship public policy formal and non formal teaching and learning and DIY and community practice Offering a truly global perspective the Handbook focuses on empirical work from Media and Information Literacy MIL practitioners from around the world The book's five parts explore global youth cultures and the media trans media learning media literacy and scientific controversies varying national approaches to media research media education policies and much more A ground breaking resource on the concepts and theories of media research this important book Provides a diversity of views and experiences relevant to media literacy education research Features contributions from experts from a wide range of countries including South Africa Finland India Italy Brazil and many more Examines the history and future of media education in various international contexts Discusses the development and current state of media literacy education institutions and policies Addresses important contemporary issues such as social media use datafication digital privacy rights and divides and global cultural practices The Handbook of Media Education Research is an invaluable guide for researchers in the field undergraduate and graduate students in media studies policy makers and MIL practitioners Trafficking Culture Simon Mackenzie, Neil Brodie, Donna Yates, Christos Tsirogiannis, 2019-08-15 Trafficking Culture outlines current research and thinking on the illicit market in antiquities It moves along the global trafficking chain from source to market identifying the main roles and routines involved Using original research the authors explore the dynamics of this grey market where legal and illegal goods are mixed and conflated It compares and contrasts this illicit trade with other transnational criminal markets such as the illegal trades in wildlife and diamonds The analytical frames of organized crime and white collar crime drawn from criminology provide a fresh perspective on a problem that has tended to be seen as archaeological rather than criminological Bringing insights from both disciplines together this book represents a productive discourse between experts in these two fields working together for several years to produce the evidence base that is reported here Innovative forms of regulation are the most productive way to explore crime control in this field and this book provides a series of propositions about practical crime reduction measures for the future It will be invaluable to academics working in the fields of archaeology criminology art history museum studies and heritage The book will also be a vital resource for professionals in the field of cultural property protection and preservation Strategic Approaches to Regional Development Iryna

Kristensen, Alexandre Dubois, Jukka Teräs, 2018-12-18 The existence and persistence of regional disparities between European regions require context tailored policies to promote structural change This book explores the congruence between place based development and regional competitiveness in the EU context Drawing on a range of social science disciplines this book unpicks the complexity of regional transformation processes aiming to enhance the applicability and transferability of theoretical approaches to innovation and place based regional development in diverse European territorial settings The contributors have a particular focus on less favoured regions and on the application of Smart Specialisation a strategic approach to innovation based regional development to the issues at hand The book comes at a critical moment meeting the growing demand of academics practitioners and policymakers with an interest in promoting regional economic growth and well being Reclaiming the University for the Public Good Malcolm Noble, Cilla Ross, 2019-12-11 This book asks how we can reclaim the university for the public good The editors and contributors argue that the sector is in crisis accelerated by the passing of the UK Higher Education Research Act in 2017 and made visible during the University and College Union strikes in April 2018 In response to this there are widespread demands to reclaim the university and protect education as a public good using co operative structures Taking an interdisciplinary and social justice perspective the editors and contributors offer concrete examples of alternative higher education in doing so analysing how the future of the university can be recovered This intersectional volume discusses a broad range of approaches to higher education while disseminating new ideas It will be of interest and value to those disenchanted with the current state of higher education in the UK and beyond as well as activists and policy makers Annual Review of Comparative and International Education 2020 Alexander W. Wiseman,2021-08-02 The Annual Review of Comparative and International Education covers significant developments in the field of comparative and international education This 2020 edition begins with a collection of discussion essays about comparative education trends and directions written by both professional and scholarly leaders Statistical Methods, Computing, and Resources for Genome-Wide Association Studies Riyan Cheng,Lide Han,Hailan Liu,Min Zhang,Guolian Kang,2021-08-24 Protidžihádistický vigilantismus v kyberprostoru Jakub Drmola,2018-01-01 Monografie se zabývá prvním dvěmi palivovými problémy dnešní doby moderní terorismem a zneužitím kyberprostoru Paralelní s krvavým politickým bojem ve fyzickém světě problém i boj ve virtuálním světě Ten sice prozatím není krvavý ale je němý urputný nebo se zde bojuje o srdce a myslí potenciální sympatizant a budoucích rekrut teroristických organizací Do tohoto boje se zapojují i hacktivisti kteří přeslovně berou zkon do vlastních rukou Ale jak takový boj proti digitální dismu online výpad Maj jejich toky v kyberprostoru vůbec nějak reálný dopad A jak bude v boj v blízké budoucnosti Na tyto i další otázky se kniha snaží odpovědět co nejexaktněji pomocí modelů a simulací
