

APES Unit 2 Study Guide
The Living World: Ecosystems Teacher's KEY

The first unit of AP Environmental Science will introduce and/or reacquaint you with the ecology of the Earth. We will cover ecosystems, biomes, the biogeochemical cycles, food chains, and food webs.

Unit 1. Short Answer Questions

1.0	Describe abiotic & biotic factors in ecosystems, and give examples of energy converting from one form to another. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. State the First Law of Thermodynamics. Energy is neither created nor destroyed, but transferred. 2. What is the main difference between kinetic and potential energy? Potential energy is stored, kinetic energy is in motion. 3. What is the difference between a community and an ecosystem? A community consists of all the populations of living things in an area. An ecosystem includes the community and the abiotic factors. 4. Give [egg] examples of biotic factors and [egg] examples of abiotic factors in a pond ecosystem. Biotic = bacteria, algae Abiotic = Dissolved oxygen levels, water temperature 5. Why is the Gray Wolf in Yellowstone considered a keystone species? Gray wolves are top predators. Their presence influences the health of the ecosystem as they prevent grazing animals from becoming overpopulated, and alter their behavior.
1.1	Explain how the availability of resources influences species interactions. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 6. Define resource partitioning and give an example. Resource partitioning mitigates competition. It involves using a resource in different ways, at different times, or different parts. For example, many species of warbler can occupy the same tree since they use different parts of the resource. 7. Give an example of a mutualistic interspecific interaction. Mutualism = both species benefit. For example, coral reefs and zooxanthellae algae in their tissues. 8. Give an example of commensalism. One benefits and the other is not affected. For example, Cactus wren nesting on a cactus. 9. Give an example of a parasitic symbiotic relationship. The parasite benefits while the host is harmed (usually weakened). For example, dogfish shark and tapeworm.
1.2	Describe the global distribution and principal environmental aspects of terrestrial biomes. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 10. How are terrestrial biomes characterized? Climate (long term patterns of temperature and precipitation) and dominant vegetation 11. Describe the taiga biome and the community found there. Taiga is a cold, northern coniferous forest. There are well-defined seasons in this sub-arctic biome. Animals living there have adapted to the cold, snowy winters. Lichens, mosses, and mushrooms are found on the forest floor. A permafrost layer is found in the soil. 12. How do desert plants and animals survive? Adaptations to survive a lack of water. 13. Why does a thick layer of decaying leaf litter typically cover the floors of temperate deciduous forests? In deciduous forests, trees lose their leaves seasonally.

Telesiene,Matthias Gross,2016-07-01 Green European addresses the quest for a better understanding of European type s of environmentalism This monograph focuses on public attitudes and behaviours and the culturally rooted as well as country specific differences The book addresses the wider issue that many European countries are rendered green or as having an advanced environmental awareness but the question how green are Green Europeans really is yet to be answered The book covers a variety of unique data driven comparative studies and is divided into three parts the first addresses perceptions of environmental and technological threats and risks the second part deals with environmental activism in Europe the third discusses environmental attitudes environmental concerns and their imminent link to personal pro environmental behaviour The empirical comparative nature of the contributions is enabled by data from the International Social Survey Programme ISSP Citizen Environmentalists James Longhurst,2012-06-22 A telling look at the lives and strategies of women environmental activists in the long 1960s solidly grounded in a national context Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature

Bron Taylor, 2008-06-10 The Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature originally published in 2005 is a landmark work in the burgeoning field of religion and nature. It covers a vast and interdisciplinary range of material from thinkers to religious traditions and beyond with clarity and style. Widely praised by reviewers and the recipient of two reference work awards since its publication, see www.religionandnature.com. Earn this new, more affordable version is a must-have book for anyone interested in the manifold and fascinating links between religion and nature in all their many senses. Underminers Keith Farnish, 2013-09-10 A user's guide for dismantling modern civilization. Social Movement Literature Stephen Schneider, 2024-02-28 Social Movement Literature introduces readers to the study of those cultural texts that have come to define modern social movements. Looking at movements such as the US civil rights movement, gay liberation movement, environmental movement, and contemporary movement such as #MeToo and Black Lives Matter, this volume focuses not just on the texts that social movements have produced but also on those that have inspired and been inspired by those movements. As such, Social Movement Literature seeks to address a number of key questions: how do social movements develop and present not just their goals but also their broader identities using texts and other media? How are these movement texts received and further disseminated? Are there common features across movement texts? How and why do some of these texts continue to resonate today? By combining both textual and historical approaches to the analysis of social movements, this volume aims to give readers both an understanding of how social movements emerge and why they remain both political and culturally relevant today. Netnography Robert V. Kozinets, 2019-10-14 Netnography is an adaptation of ethnography for the online world, pioneered by Robert Kozinets and is concerned with the study of online cultures and communities as distinct social phenomena rather than isolated content. In this landmark third edition, Netnography: The Essential Guide provides the theoretical and methodological groundwork as well as the practical applications helping students both understand and do netnographic research projects of their own. Packed with enhanced learning features throughout, linking concepts to structured activities in a step-by-step way, the book is also now accompanied by a striking new visual design and further case studies offering the essential student resource to conducting online ethnographic research. Real-world examples provided demonstrate netnography in practice across the social sciences in media and cultural studies, anthropology, education, nursing, travel and tourism, and others. Grounding Religion Whitney A. Bauman, Richard Bohannon, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2017-04-11 Now in its second edition, Grounding Religion explores relationships between the environment and religious beliefs and practices. Established scholars introduce students to the ways in which religion shapes human-earth relations, surveying a series of questions about how the religious world influences and is influenced by ecological systems. Case studies, discussion questions, and further reading enrich students' experience. This second edition features updated content, including revisions of every chapter and new material on natural disasters, gender and sexuality, race and ethnicity, climate change, food, technology, and hope and despair. An excellent text for undergraduates and graduates alike, it offers an expansive overview of the academic field of religion and ecology as it has emerged in the past fifty years Paganism, Traditionalism, Nationalism Kaarina Aitamurto, 2016-05-05 Rodnoverie was one of the first new religious movements to emerge following the collapse of the Soviet Union its development providing an important lens through which to view changes in post Soviet religious and political life Rodnovers view social and political issues as inseparably linked to their religiosity but do not reflect the liberal values dominant among Western Pagans Indeed among the conservative and nationalist movements often associated with Rodnoverie in Russia traditional anti Western and anti Semitic rhetoric has recently been overshadowed by anti Islam and anti migrant tendencies Providing a fascinating overview of the history organisations adherents beliefs and practices of Rodnoverie this book presents several different narratives as a revival of the native Russian or Slavic religion as a nature religion and as an alternative to modern values and lifestyles Drawing upon primary sources documents and books this analysis is supplemented with extensive fieldwork carried out among Rodnoverie communities in Russia and will be of interest to scholars of post Soviet society new religious movements and contemporary Paganism in general
