Television Wikipedia contributors,      Necromedia Marcel O'Gorman, 2015-04-15 In Necromedia media activist Marcel O Gorman takes aim at the collusion of death and technology drawing on a broad arsenal that ranges from posthumanist philosophy and social psychology to digital art and handmade objects to think with Throughout O Gorman mixes philosophical speculation with artistic creation personal memoir and existential dread He is not so much arguing against technoculture as documenting a struggle to embrace the technical essence of human being without permitting technology worshippers to have the last word on what it means to be human Inspired in part by the work of cultural anthropologist Ernest Becker O Gorman begins by suggesting that technology provides human beings with a cultural hero system built on the denial of death and a false promise of immortality This theory adds an existential zest to the book allowing the author not only to devise a creative diagnosis of what Bernard Stiegler has called the malaise of contemporary technoculture but also to contribute a potential therapy one that requires embracing human finitude infusing care into the process of technological production and recognizing the vulnerability of all things human and nonhuman With this goal in mind Necromedia prescribes new research practices in the humanities that involve both written work and the creation of objects to think with that are designed to infiltrate and shape the technoculture that surrounds us TV Guide, 2005

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by 20th Century Fox Television Wikipedia contributors, The Blackwell Guide to Theology and Popular Culture Kelton Cobb, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Guide to Theology of Popular Culture outlines various general theories of popular culture identifies theologians and theological concepts that are conducive to analyzing popular culture and explores religious themes that are asserting themselves through popular movies novels music television shows and advertising A timely examination and contribution to the rapidly expanding field of theology and popular culture Locates the theological analysis of culture alongside political sociological economic aesthetic and psychological analyses Surveys the work of religious and theological scholars who have turned their attention to popular culture Considers classic Christian thinkers who have wrestled with culture such as St Paul Tertullian

Augustine Schleiermacher Tillich and Ricoeur Proposes a method for analysing culture to discern its religious content Identifies religious themes in popular culture Uses illustrations ranging from the fiction of Nick Hornby to Six Feet Under An appendix provides lists of films novels television series consumer products architectural works cultural events and corporate icons that lend themselves to theological analysis Death in American Texts and Performances Mark Pizzato,2016-05-13 How do twentieth and twenty first century artists bring forth the powerful reality of death when it exists in memory and lived experience as something that happens only to others Death in American Texts and Performances takes up this question to explore the modern and postmodern aesthetics of death Working between and across genres the contributors examine literary texts and performance media including Robert Lowell s For the Union Dead Luis Valdez Dark Root of a Scream Amiri Baraka s Dutchman Thornton Wilder s Our Town John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing Toni Morrison s Sula and Song of Solomon Don DeLillo s White Noise and Falling Man and HBO s Six Feet Under As the contributors struggle to convey the artist s crisis of representation they often locate the dilemma in the gap between artifice and nature where loss is performed and where re membering is sometimes literally reenacted through the bodily gesture While artists confront the impossibility of total recovery or transformation so must the contributors explore the gulf between real corpses and their literary or performative reconstructions Ultimately the volume shows both artist and critic grappling with the dilemma of showing how the aesthetics of death as absence is made meaningful in and by language Behind the
