Epistle To White Christians:

Epistle to White Christians Fred D. Wentzel, 1948 The Epistles for All Christians David Smith, 2020-09-25 In The Epistles for All Christians David Smith argues that epistolary literature offers analogous evidence of circulation to the Gospels Since Richard Bauckham's edited volume The Gospels for All Christians was published in 1998 debate over the validity of the contributors' claims that the Gospels were written for all Christians has revolved around interpretation Smith brings circulation to bear on the conversation Studying ancient media practices of publication and circulation and using social network theory Smith makes a compelling case that if the evangelists did not expect their texts to circulate they would be atypical Christianity and the Contest for Manhood in Late Antiquity Nathan D. Howard, 2022-11-24 In this book Nathan Howard explores gender and identity formation in fourth century Cappadocia where pro Nicene bishops used a rhetoric of contest that aligned with conventions of classical Greek masculinity Howard demonstrates that epistolary exhibitions served as a locus for asserting manhood in the fourth century These performances illustrate how a culture of orality that had defined manhood among civic elites was reframed as a contest whereby one accrued status through merits of composition Howard shows how the Cappadocians' rhetoric also reordered the body and materiality as components of a maleness over which they moderated He interrogates fourth century theological conflict as part of a rhetorical battle over claims to manhood that supported the Cappadocians' theology and cast doubt on non Trinitarian rivals whom they cast as effeminate and disingenuous Investigating accounts of pro Nicene protagonists overcoming struggles Howard establishes that tropes based on classical standards of gender contributed to the formation of Trinitarian orthodoxy The Social Worlds of Ancient Jews and Christians, 2022-11-21 This volume contains fifteen essays in honor of L Michael White whose work has been influential in exploring the social histories of ancient Jews and Christians within the Graeco Roman world Following an introduction that highlights some of White's main scholarly contributions the essays are grouped into three topic areas Paul and his Legacy Social Relations and Material Culture The essays are united by an interest in reconstructing the social worlds of ancient Jews and Christians through careful analysis of literary sources and material culture in their most precise ancient contexts The Epistle to the Hebrews, the First Apology for Christianity Alexander Balmain Bruce, 1899 The Epistle of James and Eschatology Todd Penner, 1996-05-01 The aim of this book is to challenge the common view that the epistle of James is a late Hellenistic Wisdom document that has little importance for our understanding of earliest Christianity The author undertakes two main projects first an examination of the various assumptions about date setting and content that have influenced how the letter of James has been interpreted and second a re-reading of the letter that seeks to uncover the special character of the epistle by stressing the fusion of its eschatological framework with its ethical instruction The literary cultural and social contextualization of James that emerges sheds new light on this often neglected text and its place in early Christianity Eerdmans Commentary on the Bible: First and Second Kings Roger Toms, 2019-06-18

The Cotton Patch Gospel:

Paul's Epistles Clarence Jordan,2004 The Cotton Patch Gospel recasts the stories of Jesus and the letters of Paul and Peter into the language of the mid 20th century South Born out of the Civil Rights struggle these now classic translations of much of the New Testament bring the far away places of Scripture closer to home Gainesville Selma Birmingham Atlanta Washington D C As Jordan once wrote While there have been many excellent translations of the Scriptures into modern English they still have left us stranded in the long distant past We need to have the good news come to us not only in our own tongue but in our own time We want to be participants in the faith not merely spectators
