The Miniature Wife Manuel Gonzales, 2014-02-04 In the tradition of George Saunders and Aimee Bender an exuberantly imagined debut that chronicles an ordinary world marked by unusual phenomena The eighteen stories of Manuel Gonzales's exhilarating first book render the fantastic commonplace and the ordinary extraordinary in prose that thrums with energy and shimmers with beauty In The Artist's Voice we meet one of the world's foremost composers a man who speaks through his ears A hijacked plane circles a city for twenty years in Pilot Copilot Writer Sound can kill in The Sounds of Early Morning

And in the title story a man is at war with the wife he accidentally shrank. For these characters the phenomenal isn't necessarily special but it's often dangerous. In slightly fantastical settings, Gonzales illustrates very real guilt over small and large marital missteps, the intense desire for the reinvention of self, and the powerful urges we feel to defend and provide for the people we love. With wit and insight, these stories subvert our expectations and challenge us to look at our surroundings with fresh eyes. Brilliantly conceived, strikingly original, and told with the narrative instinct of a born storyteller, The Miniature Wife is an unforgettable debut.

Escape Velocity Charles Portis, 2013-08-27 Collected here in Escape Velocity edited by Jay Jennings is his miscellany: journalism, short fiction, memoir, and even the play Delray's New Moon published for the first time in this volume. Portis covers topics as varied as the civil rights movement, road tripping in Baja, and Elvis's visits to his aging mother. For publications such as the New York Herald Tribune and Saturday Evening Post, fans of Portis's droll Southern humor and quirky characters will be thrilled at this new addition to his library, and those not yet familiar with his work will find a great introduction to him here. Also included are tributes by accomplished authors including Donna Tartt and Ron Rosenbaum.

Blue Helmet Edward H. Carpenter, 2025-03 Blue Helmet My Year as a UN Peacekeeper in South Sudan tells the story of a country, a conflict, and the institution of peacekeeping through the eyes of a senior American military officer working on the ground in one of the most dangerous countries on the planet. South Sudan is rich in natural resources, and its fertile soil could make it the breadbasket of East Africa. Yet it remains the poorest and most corrupt country in the region, plagued by disease, famine, and ethnic strife. Abductions, sexual violence, death, and displacement affect tens of thousands of people each year. Edward H. Carpenter pulls readers into his world, allowing them to experience the powerful, poignant realities of being a peacekeeper in South Sudan. In the process, the author reveals how the United Nations really conducts its missions, what it tolerates, and how it often falls short of achieving the aims of its charter: equal rights, justice, and economic advancement for all people, with the use of armed forces limited to serving those common interests by keeping the peace and preventing the scourge of war. It is a story that is eye-opening, unsettling, and always compelling. Global leaders may fairly claim that they have done everything they can to help South Sudan help itself; they've dispatched thousands of peacekeepers and provided billions of dollars in aid. So why is the UN still struggling to fulfill its mandate to protect civilians and safeguard the delivery of humanitarian assistance? What could be done better? Bringing the reader to the forefront of action, Blue Helmet answers these questions and raises others about how modern peacekeeping missions are organized and overseen, shedding light on some of the contradictions at the heart of peacekeeping.

The Anchor Book of New American Short Stories Ben Marcus, 2007-12-18 In twenty-nine separate but ingenious ways, these stories seek permanent residence within a reader. They strive to become an emotional or intellectual cargo that might accompany us wherever or however we go. If we are made by what we read, if language truly builds people into what they are, how they think, the depth with which they feel, then these stories are to me premium material for that construction project. You could build a civilization with them. Ben Marcus from
