himself in the affair All the people throughout the city had heard of the wonderful property the cloth was to possess and all were anxious to learn how wise or how ignorant their neighbors might prove to be I will send my faithful old minister to the weavers said the Emperor at last after some deliberation he will be best able to see how the cloth looks for he is a man of sense and no one can be more suitable for his office than he is So the faithful old minister went into the hall where the knaves were working with all their might at their empty looms What can be the meaning of this thought the old man opening his eyes very wide I cannot discover the least bit of thread on the looms However he did not express his thoughts aloud The impostors requested him very courteously to be so good as to come nearer their looms and then asked him whether the design pleased him and whether the colors were not very beautiful at the same time pointing to the empty frames The poor old minister looked and looked he could not discover anything on the looms for a very good reason viz there was nothing there What thought he again Is it possible that I am a simpleton I have never thought so myself and no one must know it now if I am so Can it be that I am unfit for my office No that must not be said either I will never confess that I could not see the stuff Well Sir Minister said one of the knaves still pretending to work You do not say whether the stuff pleases you the mother duck's with the first rate of intentions Just like the mother duck the writer's mom had no concept her perception became reality became no longer pretty actual The autobiographical idea of The Red Shoes is greater direct they have been born out of his obsessive interest to the pronounced squeaking which issued forth from his new boots offered mainly to put on at some point of his church affirmation rite The attention interested in the squeaky boots essentially allowed them to take on an existence of their very own just like the title shoes of his fairy story which in turn stimulated a traditional movie Andersen's fairy stories have retained their strength to enchant in large part by using virtue of delineating standard themes If the universality of the memories are capable of making character connections with readers across a broad range of social strata it must no longer be at all unexpected they spring from non public revel in Anderson turned into a creator committed to the purity of literary creation He grew embittered looking less talented writers revel in extra reputation and success with the aid of appealing to fads Why wouldn't the sort of creator eventually conceive a tale like The Emperor's New Clothes The stress of innocence that constantly come truth to stand with the deceptive nature of the person international that recurs in the fairy memories of Hans Christian Andersen talk to a mature mind that never lost touch with the ache of youth A ache that greater palpable and tangible within the autobiographical worlds of Andersen's Snow Queen and Tin Soldier than within the worlds of Cinderella and Snow White assembled by the Grimms however created by way of others
