Report: Analysis of present conditions India. Calcutta University Commission, 1919 The Homoerotics of Orientalism Joseph A. Boone, 2014-03-25 One of the largely untold stories of Orientalism is the degree to which the Middle East has been associated with deviant male homosexuality by scores of Western travelers historians writers and artists for well over four hundred years And this story stands to shatter our preconceptions of Orientalism To illuminate why and how the Islamicate world became the locus for such fantasies and desires Boone deploys a supple mode of analysis that reveals how the cultural exchanges between Middle East and West have always been reciprocal and often mutual amatory as well as bellicose Whether examining European accounts of Istanbul and Egypt as hotbeds of forbidden desire juxtaposing Ottoman homoerotic genres and their European imitators or unlocking the homoerotic encoding in Persian miniatures and Orientalist paintings this remarkable study models an ethics of crosscultural reading that exposes with nuance and economy the crucial role played by the homoerotics of Orientalism in shaping the world as we know it today A contribution to studies in visual culture as well as literary and social history The Homoerotics of Orientalism draws on primary sources ranging from untranslated Middle Eastern manuscripts and European belles lettres to miniature paintings and photographic erotica that are presented here for the first time

Report Calcutta (India) University commission. 1917-1919,1919 Looking East G. Maclean,2007-09-05 Looking East examines how English encounters with the Ottoman Empire helped shape national identities and imperial ambitions Engagingly written in an accessible style this book demonstrates how the so called conflict of civilizations separating the Muslim East from the Christian West is a false and dangerous myth Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee,1919 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Q. Roberts,2018-10-24 This book provides a unique view of British Russian relations during the last fifteen years of the Soviet regime and thereafter into the post communist era As Director of a Foreign Office funded organisation promoting professional intellectual and cultural contacts between Britain and Russia Roberts earned the trust of leading figures in both countries At the same time he had to maintain cross party support in Parliament and the confidence of his Whitehall paymasters These last occasionally proved as obstructive as the Soviet organisations all opposed to unfettered contact with western people and ideas with which he had to maintain a modus operandi Undeterred by Cold War rhetoric the author contrived to break down barriers and to earn the trust and gratitude of writers musicians theatre and film directors scientists and even politicians This is their eye witness history no less than his
