Induction Malfunction Leonid Chernyak,2006 In Induction Malfunction Leaving Teachers Behind Dr Leonid Chernyak utilizing his investigative reporting skills showcases what happens to novice teachers specifically at a Florida charter middle school when a mentored induction program is purposefully and neglectfully disbanded The study which took almost an entire school year to chronicle research and exhaustively reference is seen through the points of view of three novice teachers who despite efforts to a collaborate b grow professionally together and c take lessons learned from the first year into the next witness first hand a how easily promises made can be broken b how easily the building of collaborative bridges can be burned and c how hard incorporating highly regarded education theories into practice can be Dr Leonid Chernyak is a former member of the Society of Professional Journalists and the National Honor Society He has appeared twice in Who's Who Among American High School Students and was honored by the Florida Department of Education for his writing At the University of Florida he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in print journalism and a Master of Arts degree in Mass Communication At Argosy University he earned an Education Specialist degree and a Doctor of Education degree both in curriculum and instruction Dr Leonid Chernyak has so far worked as a freelance reporter a substitute teacher a language arts instructor and tutor a translator a collector and a customer relations representative His philosophy of life revolves around breaking routine a team spirit thinking outside the box questioning everything reading between the lines standing up against the few who rule the many not limiting yourself to others criticisms and taking a world view of everything His first book Breaking Routine A cosmic outlook on our comic world was published in 2005 Managing School Districts for High Performance Stacey Childress,2007 Managing School Districts for High Performance brings together more than twenty case studies and other readings that offer a powerful and transformative approach to advancing and sustaining the work of school improvement At the center of this work is the concept of organizational coherence aligning organizational design human capital management resource allocation and accountability and performance improvement systems to support an overarching strategy This central idea provides a valuable conceptual framework for current and future school leaders The case studies presented in Managing School Districts for High Performance grow out of the Public Education Leadership Project PELP a unique partnership between the Harvard Business School the Harvard Graduate School of Education and a network of urban school districts This rich array of cases explores the managerial challenges districts face as they seek to ensure rich learning opportunities and high achievement for all students across a system of schools This book of insightful case studies fills a void long felt by educational administrators in search of practical real world training tools It will serve as a catalyst for the tough conversations district leaders need to have about achieving high quality outcomes for all students The Broad Center for the Management of School Systems has used many of these cases with great success and we are excited that they are now compiled into a single collection Dan Katzir Managing Director The Broad Foundation This volume is not a treatise about how schools and districts should work Rather it provides a deep immersion in the real dilemmas involved in advancing school district reform Anyone who works through these cases cannot help but come away with a more informed vision for change a more reflective orientation about the interrelationships among the multiple tasks involved and a more prudent grasp of what it takes to educate all children to high academic standards The course of study presented by Managing School Districts for High Performance should be required professional education for anyone charged with advancing a coherent agenda of school improvement in our diverse demanding and rapidly changing society Anthony S Bryk Spencer Professor of Organizational Studies Stanford University This set of case studies offers practitioners policymakers and scholars the opportunity to learn from the collective wisdom and real life experiences of educational leaders involved in systemic transformation Implementing coherent reform strategies designed to improve and sustain student performance often takes place in a vacuum As a former urban superintendent I believe that these selected educational case studies provide a compelling forum for shared experiential teaching and learning Arlene Ackerman Christian A Johnson Professor of Outstanding Educational Practice Teachers College Columbia University This collaboration between the Harvard Business School and the Harvard Graduate School of Education provides a set of analytical tools to address the most complex and challenging issues facing urban public schools The contemporary case studies document actual choices and constraints and point to patterns and similarities across organizations from urban schools to corporate environments Carol Johnson Superintendent Boston Public Schools Stacy Childress is a lecturer at Harvard Business School Richard F Elmore is the Gregory R Anrig Professor of Educational Leadership at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Allen S Grossman is the MBA Class of 1957 Professor of Management Practice at Harvard Business School Susan Moore Johnson is the Pforzheimer Professor of Teaching and Learning at the Harvard Graduate School of Education

Policy and Practice Thomas E. Scruggs, Margo A. Mastropieri, 2009-03-11 In the study of learning and behavioral disabilities effective practice and public policy enacted to implement this practice are closely intertwined This book contains topics that include educational equity imputations of malice in social policy and analytical discussions of Response to Intervention and No Child Left Behind legislation

Transforming Public Education Stacey Childress, 2010 Transforming Public Education features nineteen cases that profile entrepreneurs who are pursuing opportunities to create pattern breaking social change in our public schools For nearly two decades education entrepreneurs have been working to transform the K 12 public education system in the United States Social entrepreneurship has become part of the language of a new generation of idealists many of whom are focused on education The nineteen cases in this book profile entrepreneurs who are pursuing opportunities to create pattern breaking social change in our public schools in particular by creating high quality educational opportunities for low income and minority students who are dramatically underserved by the current public education system Based on a popular course developed and taught at the Harvard Business School this casebook is organized into four modules Understanding the Context of Urban Schooling in the United States Tackling the People Problem Focusing on Performance Launching and Growing New Schools Students are invited to explore four overarching questions Why are there opportunities for entrepreneurs in a sector that is funded with public dollars and delivered by public agencies Why is entrepreneurial activity aggregating around certain opportunities What are the possibilities and constraints faced by entrepreneurs in each opportunity area How can we evaluate the impact of these entrepreneurs efforts
