Films that Work Vinzenz Hediger, Patrick Vonderau, 2009 Industriële films worden gezien als een apart filmgenre van de twintigste eeuw Ze werden geproduceerd en gesponsord door de overheid en grote bedrijven en moesten vooral aan de wensen van de sponsors voldoen en niet zo zeer aan die van de filmmakers In de hoogtijdagen werkten er duizenden mensen aan deze industriële films Zo zijn er vakbladen en filmfestivals ontstaan door samenwerking met grote bedrijven als Shell en A.T.T. Daarnaast hebben belangrijke regisseurs zoals Buster Keaton John Grierson en Alain Resnais aan deze films meegewerkt Toch lijkt de industriële film geen spoor te hebben achtergelaten in het filmische culturele discours Films that Work is het eerste boek waarin de industriële film en zijn opmerkelijke geschiedenis worden onderzocht

Peterkin, Anna Skorzevska, 2018-07-27 Most medical schools in the US Canada and UK now incorporate some form of arts and humanities based teaching into their curricula What happens in residency is another story Most postgraduate programs do not continue the thread of such teaching although many residents would like to deepen their understanding of the medical humanities before they move into practice The humanities emphasize the human side of medicine and can provide a counterpoint to the reductionism of evidence based medicine and technological hubris for young doctors as they apply new knowledge and skills in ambiguous real life encounters with patients who are living with complicated health problems Humanities based education can help both sides of the relationship programs are shown to reduce burnout and mental health issues in young physicians and can also help learning practitioners grapple with the most difficult aspects of their craft how does one persuade patients on a course of treatment while respecting informed consent How does one work with families How does one listen to and treat patients exhibiting self harm tendencies Available research may demonstrate the efficacy of such exposures but provide little practical advice or resources for setting up programs across specialty and sub specialty disciplines Health Humanities in Post Graduate Medical Education will fill this gap in knowledge translation for the thousands of residency programs worldwide allowing educators supervisors and residents themselves to create robust and educationally sound workshops seminars study groups lecture series research and arts based projects publications and events Parameters of Disavowal Jinsoo An,2018-06-08 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more The colonial experience of the early twentieth century shaped Korea s culture and identity leaving a troubling past that was subtly reconstructed in South Korean postcolonial cinema Relating postcolonial discourses to a reading of Manchurian action films kisaeng and gangster films and revenge horror films Parameters of Disavowal shows how filmmakers reworked recontextualized and erased ideas and symbols of colonial power In particular Jinsoo An examines how South Korean films privileged certain sites such as the kisaeng house and the Manchurian frontier generating unique meanings that challenged the domination of the colonial power and how horror films indirectly explored both the continuing trauma of colonial violence and lingering emotional ties to the colonial order Espousing the ideology of nationalism while responding to a new Cold War order that positioned Japan and South Korea as political and economic allies postcolonial cinema formulated distinctive ways of seeing and imagining the colonial past

The Palgrave Handbook of Sound Design and Music in Screen Media Liz Greene, Danijela Kulezic-Wilson, 2016-12-14 This book bridges the existing gap between film sound and film music studies by bringing together scholars from both disciplines who challenge the constraints of their subject areas by thinking about integrated approaches to the soundtrack As the boundaries between scoring and sound design in contemporary cinema have become increasingly blurred both film music and film sound studies have responded by expanding their range of topics and the scope of their analysis beyond those traditionally addressed The running theme of the book is the disintegration of boundaries which permeates discussions about industry labour technology aesthetics and audiovisual spectatorship The collaborative nature of screen media is addressed not only in scholarly chapters but also through interviews with key practitioners that include sound recordists sound designers composers orchestrators and music supervisors who honed their skills on films TV programmes video games commercials and music videos

Hidden in Plain Sight Colin Williamson, 2015-10-22 What does it mean to describe cinematic effects as movie magic to compare filmmakers to magicians or to say that the cinema is all a trick The heyday of stage illusionism was over a century ago so why do such performances still serve as a key reference point for understanding filmmaking especially now that so much of the cinema rests on the use of computers To answer these questions Colin Williamson situates film within a long tradition of magical practices that combine art and science involve deception and discovery and evoke two forms of wonder both awe at the illusion displayed and curiosity about how it was performed He thus considers how even as they mystify audiences cinematic illusions also inspire them to learn more about the technologies and techniques behind moving images Tracing the overlaps between the worlds of magic and filmmaking Hidden in Plain Sight examines how professional illusionists and their tricks have been represented onscreen while also considering stage magicians who have stepped behind the camera from Georges Méliès to Ricky Jay Williamson offers an insightful wide-ranging investigation of how the cinema has functioned as a device of wonder for more than a century while also exploring how several key filmmakers from Orson Welles to Christopher Nolan and Martin Scorsese employ the rhetoric of magic Examining pre-cinematic visual culture animation nonfiction film and the digital trickery of today's CGI spectacles Hidden in Plain Sight provides an eye opening look at the powerful ways that magic has shaped our modes of perception and our experiences of the cinema

Mise en scène, Acting, and Space in Comics Geraint D'Arcy, 2020-07-31 This book explores some of the less frequently questioned ideas which underpin comics creation and criticism Mise en scène is a term which refers to the way in which visual elements work together to create meaning in comics It is a term that comics have borrowed from cinema which borrowed it in turn from theatre But comics are not film and they are not cinema so how can this term be of any use If we consider comics to have mise en scène should not we also ask if the characters in comics act like the characters on film and stage In its exploration of these ideas this book also asks what film and theatre can learn from comics

Representing Translation Dror Abend-David, 2019-02-21 In an increasingly global and multilingual society translators have transitioned from unobtrusive stagehands to key intercultural mediators a development that is reflected in contemporary media From Coppola's Lost in Translation to television's House M.D. and from live performance to social media translation is rendered as not only utilitarian but also performative and communicative In examining translation as a captivating theme in film television commercials and online content this multinational collection engages with the problems and limitations faced by translators as well as the ethical and philosophical aspects of translation and Translation Studies Contributors examine the role of the translator as protagonist agent negotiator and double agent translation in global communication the presentation of visual texts multilingualism in contemporary media and the role of foreign languages in advertisements Translation and translators are shown as inseparable parts of a contemporary life that is increasingly multilingual multiethnic multinational and socially diverse

The Brontë Sisters in Other Worlds S. Qi, J. Padgett, 2014-10-09 Looking at the works of the Brontë sisters through a translingual transnational and transcultural lens this collection is the first book length study of the Brontës as received and reimagined in languages and cultures outside of Europe and the United States Affective Governmentality Andrew Joseph Pereira, 2019-07-01 This book investigates the subjectivities in education arising from the triumphant mobilisation of care as portrayed in educational advertisements and provides a novel theory of affective governmentality based on empirical research on affect neoliberalism and governmentality It also takes the bold step of encouraging the re imagination of the central and pressing question of school marketisation in Singapore and problematises the seemingly innocuous portrayals of care in light of neoliberal governmentality seeking to perform cultural work on preferred identities and subjectivities Using a judicious selection of media artefacts the book scrutinises the creation of emotional technologies through an ethic of caring harnessing vulnerabilities and triumphalism As such it not only equips readers to understand the role of emotional technologies but also offers a critical and alternative view of hope and aspirations for transforming society The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later, 2004-2012 Anne Donadey, 2020-10-07 The Algerian War in Film Fifty Years Later 2004 2012 examines the cultural political and aesthetic significance of narrative films made during the fiftieth anniversary period of the war between 2004 and 2012 This period was a fruitful one in which film became a central medium generating varied representations of the war and Anne Donadey argues that the fiftieth anniversary film production contributed to France's move from a period of the return of the repressed to one of difficult anamnesis Donadey provides a close analysis of twenty narrative films made during this period on both side of the Mediterranean observing that while some films continue to center on the point of view of only one stake holding group a number of films open up new opportunities for multicultural French audiences to envision the war through the eyes of Algerian characters on screen and other films bring memories from various groups together in thoughtful articulations that represent the complexity of the situation Donadey takes this analysis a step further to analyze what types of gendered representations emerge in these films given the important participation of Algerian women in the revolutionary war Scholars of Francophone studies film women's studies and history will find this book particularly useful
