Maine Metaphor: The Green and Blue House S. Dorman,2014-09-12 How to live in rural Maine How in the 1980s when descendants of Maine s settlers wonder about our coming out of the Rust Belt in search of work in search of a life They were not bitter about our coming here where jobs were already scarce they were incredulous Why did we come Sometimes I answered God God brought us the formerly middle class inept to live among these most hardy and canny of make do people God brought us to experience life in Maine where my spouse sometimes worked turning and trimming four thousand boards a night waking to drive one hundred miles round trip to finish our undergraduate educations with the aid of loans and grants So I studied the place where we came to live And I forgot where we came from Rural Maine was ragged rugged hardscrabble and wild but full of the most visible vital natural creation I ve tried to express that aspect of Maine life in The Green and Blue House And there is the metaphor also Volunteer Opportunities United States.
