

TOPIC 1 : SELF AWARENESS AND SELF ESTEEM

Self Awareness

- It is the knowledge of oneself
- it is the way you identify yourself

You understand yourself in terms of likes, dislikes, values, weaknesses, strengths, talents, hobbies, ambitions, abilities, emotions, habits, feelings, personality and intellectual characteristics

Effects of having No Self Awareness

- Lack of self confidence
- Having negative self-image
- Making poor choices and decisions in life
- Being in the company of bad friends
- Engaging in risky behaviours that may ruin his/her life

How other people view you

- people may see you in different ways. Others see you as strong, confident, intelligent person while others see you as weak, unintelligent, coward etc
- the way others see you may influence your self –image
- the way you see yourself, however, is more important than what other people think or know about you.

Self-Esteem

- it is the way a person sees or values himself or herself, either positively or negatively
- it is the belief and confidence in your own ability and the value
- it is the way you feel about yourself.

Characteristics of Healthy (Positive) Self-Esteem

- Respect – for oneself and others, opinions and property of others
- Ambition – strong will/desire to succeed. A will for personal advancement
- Optimism – being hopeful and looking at the positive side of a situation rather than the negative side
- Co-operation – working together with others to achieve common goals
- Enthusiasm – feeling of interest and eagerness to be involved in an activity
- Empowerment – state where one feels they are in control of their life
- Responsibility – taking care of something or someone and accepting blame if anything goes wrong
- Kindness – feeling compassion towards others who are less privileged
- Sense of humour – causing laughter and happiness
- Giving credit where it is due

Importance of Self-Esteem

Self-Esteem helps a person to :

- Be assertive
- Think critically

Things that Matter William L. Randall,Matte Robinson,2023-11-30 Many of us have particular things in our lives photographs paintings old letters books furniture jewellery or clothing that hold special meaning for us Often they correspond to pivotal memories and can be central to our sense of self and our life narratives all the more so as we age Things That Matter sheds important light on the intricate intertwining of mementos with stories and vice versa in most people s lives The book explores the significance of cherished objects within the life stories of nine participants in a qualitative study of the links between reminiscence and resilience in later life The researchers who conducted the study represent a variety of fields including gerontology social work ministry nursing literature and education The book details how life stories can be fraught with a wide range of insights and questions from the memories that get stirred up as people embark on the process of life review prompted by the challenges and changes of aging Shedding light on the complex emotional psychological and spiritual findings of the study Things That Matter ultimately reveals the intricacy of personal narrative and the incredible ways in which things and stories are interwoven in our lives over time

The Yoga of Truth Peter Marchand,2007-05-22 A guide to Jnana Yoga the Way of Silent Knowledge by direct contemplation of the Unchangeable Shows that everything in one s body personality thoughts memories and experiences has form and is changeable and thus is neither essential nor eternal Identifies the witnessing consciousness within all that remains when the ephemeral is eliminated as the real Self the one and only unchanging eternal Being In The Yoga of Truth Peter Marchand through a series of deceptively simple introspective questions leads the seeker into discarding everything body personality thoughts memories experiences that disguises the ego s relentless masquerade as the Self This form of contemplation with its constant commitment to witnessing without attachment disempowers the ego s fixation on its products leading instead to the realization that the witnessing consciousness is in fact the one immutable Being within or without the real Self the true You The universal illusion rests upon space and time body and elements the life force mind intellect ego and Self Jnana Yoga reveals not only the insubstantial and illusory nature of our presumptions but also our habitual commitment to the illusion of being an individual that they create This illusion collapses like a house of cards before direct inspection When something has form when it can change it cannot be the eternal with which we seek union Witnessing consciousness stands alone as that which is without form In The Yoga of Truth Marchand leads us simply and compellingly to the truth of our nature and the peaceful bliss of true Being
