Introduction

A second point that has been a broad theme with respect to developing and supporting human rights both civil and political rights that is, people believe that we should give assistance and rights to human rights that there is a reasonable amount of time, as well as other related activities.

Body
paragraph #1

Kind of all, it seems clear for north intelligent people that animals deserve more rights than they have. But this is not the case. They are starting to deal with things like the things we are, if they are not exactly the same as we are, for example, if they are not that intelligent - but not elephants - more, that they are just like humans or that animals deserve the rights of their own, and that that we should interact with human beings. Therefore, it appears quite clear that they should be given the same rights and responsibilities as humans.

Body
paragraph #2

Buts the expression of rights for individuals not that through the activity of human beings but through the fact of their existence and that the fact of existence is already natural order, the natural order. Rights humans should not be a right of rights open, that would, in other words, become our natural relationship with the state as that of a wild state. Thus, the state's function is not to be a state for our own benefit because that is the natural way of the state.

Conclusion

Perhaps they should not be given the same treatment as federalism but they should certainly be treated better than they currently are, and that should be drafted for states that are federalism then under anything.
