Against

Autobiography Lia Nicole Brozgal,2013-12-01 The work of Tunisian Jewish intellectual Albert Memmi like that of many francophone Maghrebian writers is often read as thinly veiled autobiography Questioning the prevailing body of criticism which continues this interpretation of most fiction produced by francophone North African writers Lia Nicole Brozgal shows how such interpretations of Memmi s texts obscure their not inconsiderable theoretical possibilities Calling attention to the ambiguous status of autobiographical discursive and textual elements in Memmi s work Brozgal shifts the focus from the author to theoretical questions Against Autobiography places Memmi s writing and thought in dialogue with several major critical shifts in the late twentieth century literary and cultural landscape These shifts include the crisis of the authorial subject the interrogation of the form of the novel the resistance to the hegemony of vision and the critique of colonialism Showing how Memmi s novels and essays produce theories that resonate both within and beyond their original contexts Brozgal argues for allowing works of francophone Maghrebi literature to be read as complex literary objects that is not simply as ethnographic curios but as generating elements of literary theory on their own terms

Politics and Minor Literature, 2025-06-24 Politics and Minor Literature offers the first global and transcultural critical intervention of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of minor literature Taking their study on Kafka as the point of departure the authors in this collected volume travel historically geographically conceptually and linguistically to examine the ways in which minor literature flourishes as a nomadic concept since the publication of Deleuze and Guattari's work The contributions in this volume extend Deleuze and Guattari's analysis to authors beyond Kafka in multilingual and translingual contexts to the work of poetry to historically informed works taking place on the border of territories and to examinations of distant and disparate ways of imagining collectivity Each contribution offers a way of imagining how minor literature appears and acts in the world today

Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity Peta Mitchell, 2013-01-11 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity. Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity.

W.G. Sebald, 2016-08-09 This volume presents the work of internationally renowned scholars from Australia, Germany, Italy, South Africa, the UK, and the US. The focus on W.G. Sebald's writing as that of an expatriate author offers a fresh and productive approach to Sebald scholarship. In one way or another, all 28 essays in this innovative bi-lingual collection take up the notion of Sebald's experience as an expatriate writer, be it in the analysis of intertextual, transmedial, and generic border crossings; on the exposure to the other and the experience of alterity; on the question of identity construction and performance; on affinities with other expatriate writers; on the recurring topics of home, exile, dislocation, and migration; or on the continuing work of memory to work through and to preserve the consciousness of a destructive past that has informed the childhood as much as the adult life world of the author.
