described a downcast stigmatized Jewish population terrorized and powerless in face of displacement expulsions and the increasing incarceration of the Jewish population in ghettos and it predicted that the process of destruction is not yet complete The volume documents the drive by the occupiers systematically to confiscate the property of the Polish Jews and the different often chaotic and conflicting strategies for displacing Jews in the annexed territories and in the General Government The volume shows a range of reactions by the non Jewish population of Poland to the escalating persecution of the Polish Jews It also shows the efforts by Jewish organizations to publicize their plight abroad to withstand the onslaught on their communities and to manage daily life in the increasingly desperate conditions of the ghettos Learn more about the PMJ on <https://pmjdocuments.org> Fryderyk Chopin Janusz Ekiert, 2009
