This remarkable book shows that even our youngest writers can consider audience and purpose as they use nonfiction writing to document their ideas and share those ideas with others. But if students are going to be able to use writing to learn, they must have opportunities for learning to write. That's what this book is for. A wealth of hands-on minilessons offer strategies for writing informational, persuasive, and procedural text. Each lesson starts with a learning goal and follows an I do, we do, you do format. Teachers will find a wealth of ideas for guiding young students to write about what they know and care about.

Partnering With Students Mary Jane O'Connell, Kara Vandas, 2015-04-04 Empower students to own their learning. The world today needs students prepared to set goals, to fail, to get up, and try a new strategy, to fail again, and to persist until their goals are realized. Therefore, we must ask: Are all students in our classrooms equipped with the skills and confidence to take ownership of their learning? If not, what can we do to change that? Building on the work of John Hattie, Larry Ainsworth, and other leaders in the field, Partnering With Students: Building Ownership of Learning offers a powerful framework to accelerate student motivation and learning. This resource is designed to empower teachers and leaders with strategies to develop learners who have the confidence and tools to engage in any challenge. By flipping the focus to student ownership of learning, the authors provide
