

The background of the cover is a close-up, low-angle view of a stained glass window. The window is composed of various colored panes, including shades of yellow, green, and blue. The panes are separated by dark, leaded lines. The lighting is dramatic, with a strong light source from the left, creating a bright yellow glow on the left side of the image and casting deep shadows on the right side. The overall effect is one of intricate detail and artistic craftsmanship.
