Davis,1999-12-08 This book examines ethical problems raised by a number of key twentieth century theoretical and fictional texts by authors such as Levinas Sartre Beauvoir Yourcenar Duras and Genet It argues that even texts which apparently espouse ethical positions based on respect for and responsibility towards others frequently depict conflict as an insurmountable aspect of human relations This is reflected at an aesthetic level as these texts both describe the struggle for supremacy and replicate it in their relation to their readers      Fin de Millénaire French Fiction Ruth Cruickshank,2009-10-08 In this closely analytical study Cruickshank reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet in the context of the turn of the millennium in France which coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market      A New History of French Literature Denis Hollier,1998-08-19 This splendid introduction to French literature from 842 A D to the present decade is the most imaginative single volume guide to the French literary tradition available in English      The Persistence of Realism in Modernist Fiction Paul Stasi,2022-10-06 Demonstrates the persistence of realism s characteristic concerns sympathy melodrama gender and class in the most aesthetically innovative works of modernist fiction

Defoe's Fiction Ian A. Bell,2021-12-16 First published in 1985 Defoe s Fiction explores Defoe s work by considering it in the context of its genre The book highlights the difficulty of placing Defoe s fiction in the most appropriate context due to it being aimed primarily at a popular market in contrast to the more literary productions of Pope Swift or Addison It also comments on the trend of focusing on Defoe s irony or emphasising his mimetic power In doing so it seeks to explain rather than judge Defoe's achievement by looking at his whole body of work in the context of its genre Defoe's Fiction will appeal to those with an interest in Defoe comparative literature and the history of literary criticism Directory of Distance Learning Opportunities Modoc Press, Inc.,2003-02-28 This book provides an overview of current K 12 courses and programs offered in the United States as correspondence study or via such electronic delivery systems as satellite cable or the Internet The Directory includes over 6 000 courses offered by 154 institutions or distance learning consortium members Following an introduction that describes existing practices and delivery methods the Directory offers three indexes Subject Index of Courses Offered by Level Course Level Index Geographic Index All information was supplied by the institutions Entries include current contact information a description of the institution and the courses offered grade level and admission information tuition and fee information enrollment periods delivery information equipment requirements credit and grading information library services and accreditation Schools of Fiction Morgan Day Frank,2023-01-09 Throughout history American literature has provided an escape from the classroom yet authors like Twain Melville and Ellison remain key figures in high school and college curricula This book offers an account of this paradox examining the contentious but ultimately generative relationship between literary and scholastic culture in the US Resources in Education ,2001-10

May 68 in French Fiction and Film Margaret Attack,1999 This is the first study of May 68 in fiction and in film It looks at the ways the events themselves were represented in narrative evaluates the impact these crucial times had on French cultural and intellectual history and offers readings of texts which were shaped by it The chosen texts concentrate upon important features of May and its aftermath the student rebellion the workers strikes the question of the intellectuals sexuality feminism the political thriller history and textuality Attention is paid to the context of the social and cultural history of the Fifth Republic to Gaullism and to the cultural politics of gauchisme The book aims to show the importance of the interplay of real and imaginary in the texts of May and the emphasis placed upon the problematic of writing and interpretation It argues that re reading the texts of May forces a reconsideration of the existing accounts of postwar cultural history The texts of May reflect on social order on rationality logic and modes of representation and are this highly relevant to contemporary debates on modernity
