

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS
FAR EAST COMMAND

CITATION FOR LEGION OF MERIT

Lieutenant Colonel OLINTO M. BARSANTI, 034037, General Staff Corps, United States Army, as the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-1, of the Advance Command Post of General Headquarters, during the period 27 June to 12 July 1950, was responsible for setting up the entire administrative organization of the headquarters for the Advance Command Post and United States Army in Korea including Korea Military Advisory Group. Unassisted, except for indigenous personnel, he was successful in establishing all necessary systems and facilities for administration, receipt of replacements, care of prisoners of war, mess, billeting, and transportation; as well as strength and casualty reporting systems. In addition to performing all G-1 administration duties, he spent long and arduous hours canvassing the entire area from the Han River to Suwon in an effort to assist reorganization of the forces of the Republic of South Korea. By his tireless efforts and devotion to duty he contributed in an outstanding degree to the mission of the United Nations in Korea.

Legion Of Merit Write Ups:

It's Not Where You're from but Where You Wish to Go George W. Burnette, 2010-11-17 There is no available information at this time Author will provide once information is available 100 Missions North Ken Bell, 2000-12-01 A harrowing personal account of the extraordinary dangerous missions the author and his comrades flew over North Vietnam in 1966 1967 At that time American airmen were faced with unprecedented defenses and the highest pilot loss rate exceeding 25% since the early days of the US strategic bombing of Europe during World War II This thrilling book tells what it was like to muster the courage to climb into the cockpit day after day as you watched your comrades fall one by one and how the pilots fought back Letters to Imogene Robert E. Stumpf, 2021-03-23 Three career Army officers the author's father grandfather and uncle are thrust into the global struggle to save the world from Hitler's Nazi empire United by their love of Imogene daughter sister and wife their letters to her and her replies chronicle the personal side of war Imogene's father Major General Donald Stroh initially the assistant commander of the 9th Infantry Division later commanded the 8th and 106th Infantry Divisions Her husband Lieutenant Colonel Robert Stumpf commanded a battalion in the 9th and later a regiment in the 106th Their campaigns began in North Africa in late 1942 and concluded in Germany nearly three years later Imogene's brother Captain Harry Stroh was a P 47 Thunderbolt flight leader in the 362nd Fighter Group who at times flew close support missions for both the 8th and 9th Divisions in Normandy and Brittany Letters to Imogene includes insights into the personalities of some of the war's luminaries Generals Eisenhower Patton and Lightning Joe Collins among others The family narrative is rife with hardship and humor courage heartbreak and triumph and their letters present a unique and compelling window into the lives of those who fought and won the Second World War Vivid Memories of an Interesting Life Col. John H. Roush Jr., 2017-02-20 This volume presents a dramatic collection of significant combat experiences of seventy nine men in World War II as told from one combat veteran to another In the eighty six chapters are stories involving all the various branches of combat service and all of the various theaters of war Within reminiscences veterans of dangerous encounters are much more apt to open up with details in discussions with men who have also experienced combat Many find it emotionally distressing to talk of the war with the general public or to recall the horrors of warfare This is not a history book nor any attempt to tell the big picture of grand campaigns Instead it is a collection of personal involvements in one at a time incidents of conflict Many ask what it was like in World War II for our conflicts in recent years have been vastly different It has been said that war has become and continues to be an intractable social phenomenon While some say its elimination is necessary to the survival of mankind we do not seem to have approached closer to that elimination in the sixty seven years since World War II ended Encounters of warfare remain a stark reality within the present era That being so perhaps we should read of what happened as recalled in the most vivid memories of men involved in the most overpowering conflict of modern warfare Sincerely John Roush Infantry Journal ,1946 A Ramble through My War: Anzio and Other Joys

Charles F. Marshall,1998 Army ,1967 Grunts View James Carlisle,2010 The author in this book tries to give the reader more depth into the Viet Nam War Not only does he cover his time in Viet Nam both as a Grunt and a REMF but he covers some different and little known areas of the War the people of Viet Nam the Civic Actions that took place Plus more of in depth look at what some of our men went through and how it has affected the Veterans He tells how some of the political decisions cost the US casualties and closes with who lost the War The Aircraft Flash ,1953 Assembly West Point Association of Graduates (Organization),1989 Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1945 Navy Medicine ,2009 Dress Gray Lucian K. reporting From Kristallnacht to Watergate reminds us why journalism matters and why good journalism is essential to our democracy

The Army That Never Was Taylor Downing, 2024-05-23 On 29 May 1944 General George S Patton gave a speech in the south east of England to the men of his Army in which he spoke of the American desire to win and of how losing was hateful to Americans As he rose to his crescendo he said how much he pitied those sons of bitches we are going up against by God I do On that same day General Omar Bradley gave a calmer speech in Somerset to the men of his Army about how much rested on the upcoming invasion of northern France and how vital their role was in achieving victory Apart from the very different tones of the speeches reflecting the opposite character of the two Army commanders there was another big difference Bradley was speaking to men who in a little over a week would be splashing ashore on the beaches of Normandy Patton was addressing an Army that didn't exist The Army That Never Was tells the story of the biggest deception operation of the Second World War the plan to mislead the Germans into thinking that the invasion of Europe would come at the Pas de Calais by inventing an entirely fake Army group in the south east of England Full of fascinating characters from the US Britain and Germany this compelling and propulsive narrative explores one of the most remarkable stories of the Second World War

"Here" Jerry C. Cooper, 2018-04-12 What began in the 1880s when former students gathered to live over again their college days became in the 1940s the sacred tradition of current and former students congregating to read aloud a roll call honoring deceased Aggies This tradition is Muster an enshrined and enduring legacy of Texas A M University and a solemn symbol of togetherness as evidenced by the more than 300 Musters held in locations worldwide every April 21 Muster is how the Aggie Spirit comprising every Aggie who has ever lived is remembered and celebrated In Here The Muster Speeches at Texas A M University Jerry Cullum Cooper presents the 72 keynote addresses delivered on the university's campus in College Station to date The restoration of these speeches proved challenging as many were hidden in archives and newspaper fragments and others on phonograph recordings Within these speeches are the commanding voices of military heroes such as Dwight D Eisenhower and James Earl Rudder and the stirring words of political leaders including former Texas governor Allan Shivers and Aggie trailblazers like Frederick D McClure the university's first African American student body president Together these voices represent the Aggie Spirit giving us historical snapshots and perspectives of the university the state and the country spanning two centuries Most importantly they continue a hallowed tradition that honors those who have gone before and inspires those who remain Whether a reference for future speechwriters or a unique look into university history Here The Muster Speeches at Texas A M University is a celebrated and necessary addition to every Aggie collection
