Using Images to Teach Critical Thinking Skills Diane M. Cordell, 2015-11-10 Learn how to teach visual literacy through photography an easy way for you to combine student interest with resources at hand to enhance a key learning skill Research indicates that 75 to 90 percent of classroom learning occurs through the visual system making visual literacy a key component of information literacy and of critical thinking a requirement throughout the Common Core standards It s no surprise then that visual literacy is increasingly recognized as a competency that should be part of every student's skill set. Fortunately, this critical skill can be incorporated into existing curriculum, and this book shows you how to do just that. Written for K-12 classroom teachers and librarians, this all you need to know volume discusses the importance of visual literacy in education and examines how it helps address current learning standards. The book shows you how to use photography and digital images to cultivate critical thinking, inquiry, and information literacy; provides examples of the use of photographic images in the classroom and in real life; and addresses how students can be ethical practitioners in a digital world. In addition, the book includes sample lessons you can easily implement regardless of your level of technical and photographic expertise. A resource list of photo editing, curation, and museum sites is included. Letting the Buggers Be Creative Sue Cowley, 2005-05-10. Presents teaching strategies to foster creative thinking in students. Take Action! Lori Langer de Ramirez, 2009. Take Action Lesson Plans for a Multicultural Classroom is for all teachers striving to meet the needs of students in today's diverse K-12 classrooms. Take Action offers 27 practical, step-by-step multicultural lesson plans organized around seven microcultures: culture and identity, race and ethnicity, abilities and disabilities, religion, socioeconomics, and class, language, and gender, and sexuality. Each chapter includes three lesson plans at three different grade levels: elementary, middle, and secondary. Each lesson plan is presented with an accessible and predictable format: outlines the content areas addressed; provides a recipe-style list of materials for all the activities in the lesson plan; and action projects, and so much more. Connections to national professional standards and benchmarks for K-12 education as outlined by the Mid-continent Research for Education Learning are also included in every lesson plan. FEATURES: Lesson Plan Video: the Take Action DVD located in the front of the book provides readers with 9 video clips of Standards Matrix A. Lesson Preparation for the Teacher section provides activities every teacher should do prior to working on any of the lessons that follow. This section includes One Teacher's Reflection. These are stories written by teachers who reflect on specific incidents related to the chapter topic. These stories come from their own classroom and are meant to stimulate thinking about the connection between theory and practice. Teacher Action Project: These teacher action projects are meant to inspire deeper, more global connections between the teacher and the chapter topic. Teachers might be prompted to visit other classrooms, other schools, or other communities. The projects are meant to expose teachers to the chapter topics in a more visceral way than if the preparation had only been through reading. Suggested Readings and Resources: This section provides the teacher with further reading materials, websites, and references extending the action projects by providing teachers with more tools for developing further lessons and projects for their own students. FULL LESSON PLANS: Three complete lesson plans in each chapter provide novice and experienced teachers with step-by-step lesson plans. Presenting a predictable and accessible format, each lesson plan includes the following information: Grade levels: Lessons are divided among three categories: Elementary (K-5), Middle School (6-8), and High School (9-12).
