Pam Allyn,2009-04-02 Read Pam Allyn s posts on the Penguin Blog The books to read aloud to children at the important moments in their lives In What to Read When award winning educator Pam Allyn celebrates the power of reading aloud with children In many ways books provide the first opportunity for children to begin to reflectively engage with and understand the world around them Not only can parents entertain their child and convey the beauty of language through books they can also share their values and create lasting connections Here Allyn offers parents and caregivers essential advice on choosing appropriate titles for their children taking into account a child's age, attention ability, gender, and interests along with techniques for reading aloud effectively. But what sets this book apart is the extraordinary annotated list of more than three hundred titles suitable for the pivotal moments in a child's life. With category themes ranging from friendship and journeys to thankfulness, separations, silliness, and spirituality, What to Read When is a one-of-a-kind guide to how parents can best inspire children through reading together. In addition, Pam Allyn includes an indispensable Reader's Ladder section with recommendations for children at every stage from birth to age ten. With the author's warm and engaging voice throughout, discussion questions to encourage in-depth conversations, as well as advice on helping kids make the transition to independent reading, this book will help shape thoughtful, creative, and curious children, imparting a love of reading that will last a lifetime. These Penguin Young Reader's Books are referenced in What to Read When.

Sylvia Jean Drama Queen by Lisa Campbell Ernst, Penguin Young Reader's Group, 2005. Two Is For Twins by Wendy Cheyette Lewison, illustrations by Hiroe Nakata, Penguin Young Readers, 2006. Remember Grandma by Laura Langston, Penguin Group USA, May 2004. Soul Looks Back in Wonder, compiled by Tom Feelings, Puffin Books, Time of Wonder by Robert McCloskey, Penguin Books USA, Incorporated, December 1957. When I was Young in the Mountains by Cynthia Rylant, illustrated by Diane Goode, Penguin Young Readers Group, January 1993. Nana Upstairs and Nana Downstairs by Tomie DePaola, Puffin Books, an imprint of Penguin Books Inc, 1973. Good Night Good Knight by Shelly Moore Thomas, illustrations by Jennifer Plecas, Penguin Young Readers Group, 2002.

Writing the Heavenly Frontier Denice Turner, 2011-03-10. Writing the Heavenly Frontier celebrates the early voices of the air as it examines the sky as a metaphorical and political landscape. While flight histories usually focus on the physical dangers of early aviation, this book introduces the figurative liabilities of ascension. Early pilot writers not only grappled with an unwieldy machine; they also grappled with poetics that were extremely selective. Tropes that cast Charles Lindbergh as the transcendent hero of the new millennium were the same ones that kept women, black Americans, and indigenous peoples imaginatively tethered to the ground. The most popular flight autobiographies in the United States posited a hero who rose from the mundane to the miraculous, and yet the most startling autobiographies point out the social factors that limited or forbade vertical movement, both literally and figuratively. A survey of pilot writing, the book will appeal to flight enthusiasts and people interested in American autobiography and culture. But it will also appeal strongly to readers interested in the poetics and politics of place.
