

What is Federalism?

idea: The federal system of government utilized by the United States provides both benefits and responsibilities to the states, established government by dividing powers between the levels of government.

Question: Summarize the quotation below using the information in the Lesson Commentary on this previous page. (4 points each)

Lesson 1: An Overview of the Constitution

1. Create hypotheses: What do American citizens consider popular sovereignty?

Interpretation for strategic thinking as discussed above and hypothesis: I have a positive opinion of my involvement in the rule.

2. Analyze the Chapter 1 that details the system of checks and balances, the process of the government and ultimately the system. Do you agree with this system? Why or why not? Yes, I agree that the government's powers should ultimately remain equal if there are no checks and balances. However, without the power to veto, lead in action, and complete authority, citizens and legislators and effectiveness of government. The system of checks and balances seemed to ensure a balanced power as different branches are established, preventing any single entity from becoming too powerful.

Lesson 2: Amending the Constitution

3. Compare and Contrast What is similar about why Congress wanted to change the Constitution? What do their methods of changing the Constitution say?

Both Congress wanted to make internally changes the Constitution through legislative process, and the legislative branch through political parties.

These methods differ in terms of power and authority. Congress has the power to pass laws that affect the constitution and the legislative branch of the Constitution. Congress must have the final say on the constitutionality of laws and government actions.

4. Identify Cause and Effect: How might it contribute to the Constitution have
