MODEL ANSWER (STREAMLINED) - 'What is the purpose of Source B?' (7/8 marks)

Cambridge IGCSE History

2025 - KQ2

The purpose of Source B is to highlight the optimism and readiness of the League of Nations to treat the world into a more peaceful and stable world, whilst also alluding to the potential challenges the League may face in getting their mission off the ground. The intended audience is the British public, and the message the cartoonist is attempting to send is one of cautious optimism. The cartoon depicts an archway labelled 'League of Nations' that appears to be perfectly constructed out of a stiff material like the 'statue of liberty' above. Above, there is a signpost that reads 'The League of Nations' and below it, 'League of Nations' is written. Below the archway, there is a sign that reads 'The League of Nations' and below it, 'League of Nations' is written. Below the archway, there is a sign that reads 'The League of Nations' and below it, 'League of Nations' is written.

Using your knowledge, know that the League of Nations was created as part of the Treaty of Versailles in 1919. Discuss the League had many structural and operational flaws from the very outset of its creation. A lack of representation, unbalanced and uneven structure where underrepresented democracies possessed a number of votes among other things that it would be able to carry out its job effectively. Compared with this was the lack of leadership and leading states were from countries like America's unwillingness. Without America, some doubted whether the League had the power to regulate and enforce international conflicts and peacekeeping powers, as represented in the cartoon. The cartoonist's viewpoint is one of cautious optimism. It represents the idea of hope for the future and peace with the League of Nations. It represents the idea of hope for the future and peace with the League of Nations. It represents the idea of hope for the future and peace with the League of Nations.
