The Faces of Africa: Diversity and Progress, 1972 Land Management and Food/Nutrition (In)Security In Mixed Farming Systems Ermias Teferi Demessie, Karuturi Venkata Suryabhagavan, Tibebu Kassawmar, Matebu Tadesse, Abebe Shiferaw Dakka, Gizaw Desta, Mirgissa Kaba, 2025-03-21 The need to increase agricultural productivity due to the high demand of animal feeding and to provide food for growing global population has placed intense pressure on the agriculture landscape causing land degradation This issue has heavy consequences on smallholder farmers which constitute the majority of the global agricultural community making the access to sustainable nutrition ambitious for many communities Reducing land degradation understanding the process causes and effects and improving the management of natural resources became among the targets of Sustainable Development Goals Nowadays the implementation of context specific and innovative land management practices is a widely recognized solutions to ending land degradation Hurni et al 2010 Despite this it has never been implemented as widely as intended and little is known about their effectiveness in terms of restoring landscapes and boosting food and nutrition security The lack of long term observations and actions contributed to the limited knowledge available about the role of land management practices in food security To this end assessing and documenting the role and effectiveness of land management practices in food security is a relevant and critical research issue that requires appropriate attention This Research Topic aims to collect articles to address i best land management practices in effectively transforming degraded landscapes to food producing landscapes and ii documenting success and failure stories of land management practices in addressing food and nutrition security Biomass Valorization Riti Thapar Kapoor, Mika Sillanpää, Jakub Zdarta, Mohd Rafatullah, 2025-01-06 This book provides information on the applications of lignocellulosic wastes aquatic weeds algal biomass and microbes in biofuel production climate change mitigation eco restoration environment protection and development of roadmap for circular economy Approximately eighty percent of the current energy requirements are fulfilled from fossil fuels which may be exhausted in the next fifty years if their exploitation rate continues with the same pace Additionally many health related disorders like respiratory diseases cancer and tumour are directly associated with the release of toxic gases during burning of fossil fuels Therefore transition from fossil fuels derived energy to low carbon source energy is required for reduction in global carbon footprint Excessive exhaustion of fossil sources and their high cost and adverse effects on environment have compelled researchers to develop alternative energy sources Thus biomass to bioenergy conversion technologies have been considered as the most promising approach for environment protection and sustainable development This book comprises latest information on advanced technologies and future directions for researchers and scientists working in the field of biorefinery wastewater and solid waste treatment and carbon neutrality for environmental safety It can also serve as a guide to environmentalists microbiologists biotechnologists environmental engineers and managers policy makers and industrialists working in this field XXX International Congress of Psychology: Abstracts

Michele Robert,2017-10-03 The abstracts of the XXX International Congress of Psychology July 2012 Cape Town are published as a supplement to Volume 47 of the International Journal of Psychology The published volume includes the abstracts of the invited addresses symposia oral and poster presentations numbering over 5 000 separate contributions and creating an invaluable overview of the discipline of psychological science around the world today Race Talk in the South African Media Gawie Botma,2020-01-06 This book makes a very significant timely and relevant contribution to a very topical subject of immense local as well as global interest Through tracing the evolution of media discourse about race and racism which the author prefers to call race talk the writer prised open a window to a panoramic variegated and yet nuanced perspective of the perennial South African race question etched across the vistas of time and memory since Jan Van Riebeeck set up the first European settlement as a refreshment station for the Dutch East India Company at the Cape of Good Hope in 1652 up to the time of writing this book It lends a fresh lens through which to re read South African society not only to a studious scholar of media history but also to anybody interested in the general history of South Africa Dr Zvenyika Mugari WITS This book is based on meticulous archival searching presented in a new fresh and highly engaging way This is a book based on evidentiary led scholarly principles that has lucidity as a goal Unlike so many scholarly works which are turgid and very difficult to read because they are written in restricted codes meant only for other academics this manuscript is wonderfully lucid accessible and a pleasure to read The prime readership will be academics but its lucidity makes it appealing beyond a purely academic readership hopefully reaching media professionals and students also and influencing debates on race policy This is how academic books in fact should be written Prof Keyan Tomaselli University of Johannesburg The author has embarked on a very difficult and complex task of understanding the race construct in the South African media context This is a highly contested and contentious space in South Africa and it is particularly arduous for a white middle class middle aged Afrikaans male to navigate this space The author has however eloquently managed to pilot this fine line of controversy He offers a balanced view of the belligerent debate without treading insensitively on the toes of protagonists and at the same time challenges prevailing views Andr Rose National Cancer Institute Improving Global Worker Health and Safety Through Collaborative Capacity Building Initiatives Thomas P. Fuller,2021-07-13 Many economically developing countries and nations without robust occupational hygiene OH educational programs endure a shortage of qualified occupational hygienists resulting in higher rates of workplace injury illness and fatality Damage to valuable infrastructure environment and public health also occurs without adequate support Improving Global Worker Health and Safety Through Collaborative Capacity Building Initiatives outlines a broad variety of capacity building projects in OH It also introduces detailed experiences of occupational hygienists working abroad and working on special global topics including a discussion of how global trade agreements influence the practice and policy within OH It describes the special needs of informal workers who do not have a typical employer and special challenges of creating university curricular guidelines for OH building competency and increasing capacity This book also informs experienced professionals in international OH capacity building initiatives and directions Features Presents the global impact and importance of occupational hygienists Outlines knowledge and collaboration through networking Provides case studies on real world situations and problems This text will be useful for professionals and graduate students in the fields of occupational health and safety and public health Farming for Food and Water Security Eric Lichtfouse,2012-06-30

Sustainable agriculture is a rapidly growing field aiming at producing food and energy in a sustainable way for our children This discipline addresses current issues such as climate change increasing food and fuel prices starvation obesity water pollution soil erosion fertility loss pest control and biodiversity depletion Novel solutions are proposed based on integrated knowledge from agronomy soil science molecular biology chemistry toxicology ecology economy philosophy and social sciences As actual society issues are now intertwined sustainable agriculture will bring solutions to build a safer world This book series analyzes current agricultural issues and proposes alternative solutions consequently helping all scientists decision makers professors farmers and politicians wishing to build safe agriculture energy and food systems for future generations The Bantu Bibliography Jouni Maho,2008 Language and

Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education Investigating Corruption and White-collar Crime in South African Higher Education Bethuel

Sibongiseni Ngcamu,2025-10-16 Using an interpretivist approach this qualitative volume interrogates instances of corruption and white collar crime prevalent in South African higher education institutions and suggests pathways for the proactive detection and prevention of corrupt practices Contextualizing the author s practical experiences gained in the higher education sector over the past two decades this book employs an ethnographical method to explore the complexity of university systems structures and functions that make South Africa's formerly disadvantaged universities more susceptible to corruption. In the midst of highly contested divisive and highly politicized ways of reporting corruption in the media, chapters provide critical analyses guided by scientific approaches, robust data sets and qualitative face-to-face interviews to underpin the reliability of proposed policy amendments intended to detect and prevent corruption and white collar crime as well as the suggested closure of loop holes that make the sector vulnerable to and known for a high level of criminality. Making a substantial contribution to broader academic debate around corruption and university management internationally, this book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education, higher education management and administration and education policy and politics. Policy makers in both the Global South and North are also likely to benefit from this book.
