

The background of the entire cover is a dark, atmospheric photograph of a forest floor. In the foreground, there is a large, rounded mound covered in thick, vibrant green moss. The moss has a textured, almost fibrous appearance. In the lower-left quadrant, partially hidden in the dark shadows beneath the moss, is a human skull. The forest floor is littered with dry, brown pine needles and small twigs. In the background, the vertical trunks of dark evergreen trees are visible, creating a sense of depth and mystery. The overall lighting is low, with the moss providing a point of contrast.
