Language Test Construction and Evaluation J. Charles Alderson, Caroline Clapham, Dianne Wall, 1995-05-26 This book describes the process of language test construction and reviews current practice Moodle 1.9 for Second Language Teaching Jeff Stanford, 2009-10-20 Engaging online language learning activities using the Moodle platform The Experience of Language Teaching Rose Senior, 2006-02-23 Through the words of more than 100 practising language teachers The Experience of Language Teaching provides a detailed picture of teaching and learning in communicative classrooms Using a teacher generated framework it covers a range of aspects of classroom life how teachers create environments suitable for language practice how they get students on side how they manage tricky students how they enhance the learning experience how they develop and maintain a spirit of community The book demonstrates how paying attention to both the learning and social needs of their class groups enables language teachers to behave in flexible ways that promote learning This book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators researchers and to anyone interested in finding out what it is like to be a language teacher at the present time The Experience of Language Teaching was winner of the Ben Warren International Trust House Prize in 2005 The Language Teaching Matrix Jack C. Richards, 1990-02-23 For use in courses on language teaching methodology and teacher preparation this book also serves as an invaluable source for courses in language curriculum development materials development and teaching practice The author views effective language teaching as a network of interactions involving the curriculum methodology the teacher the learner and instructional materials hence the metaphor of a matrix Each chapter discusses and examines the theoretical and practical dimensions of a central issue in language teaching Among the topics covered are curriculum development designing instructional materials teaching listening speaking reading and writing the nature of effective teaching self monitoring in teacher development and language and content Richards presents key issues in an accessible and highly readable style and shows how teachers and teachers in training can be involved in the investigation of classroom teaching and learning The emphasis is not on prescriptions but rather on developing effective teaching through understanding the various factors that interact in second language learning and in the second language classroom Interactive Language Teaching Wilga M. Rivers, 1987-02-27 Teachers and writers describe the approaches and techniques they have incorporated into their own teaching The paperback edition is designed to help classroom teachers make language classes more participatory and communication oriented A distinguished group of innovative teachers and writers describe in a collection of essays the approaches and techniques they have incorporated into their own teaching Establishing Self-Access David Gardner, Lindsay Miller, 1999-03-11 Establishing Self Access examines establishing maintaining and developing self access language learning SALL While much of it presents practical ideas dealing with issues related to SALL they are supported by references to relevant literature and research This link between theory and practice makes the debate about SALL accessible and makes this a useful resource for establishing and running self access learning facilities Its unique features include a typology of self access facilities a discussion about how to manage self access a step by step guide on evaluating self access a wide variety of practical suggestions for implementing self access in different contexts It is suitable for anyone concerned with self access from pre service teacher trainees to experienced teachers and from managers of dedicated self access centres to administrators concerned with financing self access facilities
