Wilson,Maria Colavito,Djoymi

Baker,2014-03-21 Soon after film came into existence the term epic was used to describe productions that were lengthy spectacular live with action and often filmed in exotic locales with large casts and staggering budgets The effort and extravagance needed to mount an epic film paid off handsomely at the box office for the genre became an immediate favorite with audiences Epic films survived the tribulations of two world wars and the Depression and have retained the basic characteristics of size and glamour for more than a hundred years Length was and still is one of the traits of the epic though monolithic three to four hour spectacles like Gone with the Wind 1939 and Lawrence of Arabia 1962 have been replaced today by such franchises as the Harry Potter films and the Lord of the Rings trilogy Although the form has evolved during many decades of existence its central elements have been retained refined and modernized to suit the tastes of every new generation The Encyclopedia of Epic Films identifies describes and analyzes those films that meet the criteria of the epic sweeping drama panoramic landscapes lengthy adventure sequences and in many cases casts of thousands This volume looks at the wide variety of epics produced over the last century from the silent spectacles of D W Griffith and biblical melodramas of Cecil B DeMille to the historical dramas of David Lean and rollercoaster thrillers of Steven Spielberg Each entry contains Major personnel behind the camera including directors and screenwriters Cast and character listingsPlot summaryAnalysisAcademy Award wins and nominationsDVD and Blu ray availabilityResources for further study This volume also includes appendixes of foreign epics superhero spectaculars and epics produced for television along with a list of all the directors in the book Despite a lack of overall critical recognition and respect as a genre the epic remains a favorite of audiences and this book pays homage to a form of mass entertainment that continues to fill movie theaters The Encyclopedia of Epic Films will be of interest to academics and scholars as well as any fan of films made on a grand scale Rwanda's Radical Transformation Since the End of the 1994 Genocide against the Tutsi Sheriff F. Folarin, 2023-08-07 This book discusses the radical transformation of Rwanda focusing on the dynamics of its society before and after the genocide against the Tutsis in 1994 Through contextualizing the significant changes experienced by the country it throws searchlights on a number of other African states facing similar challenges The author analyses Rwanda's challenges of nationhood after the genocide the vision and will of the country's leadership its social programs and strategies for cohesion and national development the population's resilience and its growing regional influence in the twenty first century Rwandan society is here considered not only through the lens of existing literature on African politics but also through direct engagement and fieldwork with local populations scholars and policymakers In addition the book weighs in on narratives of survivors and victims of the genocide to understand and present local dispositions to current realities such as reforms development plans inclusive policies and programs and determine how Rwandans deal with historical identity issues and conflicts This book will be of interest to students scholars and researchers interested in Rwandan and African politics peace and conflict studies security strategic studies and genocide studies Human Rights Discourse in a Global Network Lena Khor, 2016-05-13 In her innovative study of human rights discourse Lena Khor takes up the prevailing concern by scholars who charge that the globalization of human rights discourse is becoming yet another form of cultural legal and political imperialism imposed from above by an international human rights regime based in the Global North To counter these charges she argues for a paradigmatic shift away from human rights as a hegemonic immutable and ill defined entity toward one that recognizes human rights as a social construct comprised of language and of language use She proposes a new theoretical framework based on a global discourse network of human rights supporting her model with case studies that examine the words and actions of witnesses to genocide Paul Rusesabagina and humanitarian organizations Doctors Without Borders She also analyzes the language of texts such as Michael Ondaatje's Anil's Ghost Khor's idea of a globally networked structure of human rights discourse enables actors textual and human who tap into or are linked into this rapidly globalizing system of networks to increase their power as speaking subjects and in so doing to influence the range of acceptable meanings and practices of human rights in the cultural sphere Khor's book is a unique and important contribution to the study of human rights in the humanities that revitalizes viable notions of agency and liberatory network power in fields that have been dominated by negative visions of human capacity and moral action Framing the World Paula a civilization Cyclones in Southern Africa Godwell Nhamo,David Chikodzi,2021-05-24 There is evidence that the world has been witnessing more intense tropical cyclones Accompanying these tropical cyclones are heightened levels of devastation that witness the loss of human life and wildlife destruction of natural resources and property and the disruption of major economic and social activities To this end there is a growing demand for publications focusing on tropical cyclones at various levels that include regional national and local levels especially from Africa One sub region that has been witnessing the harsh realities of the increasing intensity of tropical cyclones in southern Africa However within this region countries are usually impacted at varying degrees of damage Among the countries that usually encounter the harshness of these tropical cyclones are the Comoros Botswana Madagascar Mauritius Malawi Mozambique Reunion the Seychelles South Africa and Zimbabwe From the history books the following tropical cyclones made landfall and hit southern Africa Eline 2000 Favio 2007 Dineo 2017 Idai 2019 Kenneth 2019 Eliose 2021 and Chalane 2020 Although all these tropical cyclones had negative impacts it is undoubtedly Tropical Cyclone Idai that shocked the world with its devastation mainly in Mozambique Malawi and Zimbabwe in March 2019 Key infrastructure was destroyed livelihoods were lost and the environment was degraded Thousands of people died many more were injured many remain unaccounted for and others remained homeless as of the time of finalising this book in February 2021 This book therefore focuses on the devastating impacts of Tropical Cyclone Idai in Zimbabwe The book interfaces Tropical Cyclone Idai s impacts with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and some of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs This linkage was deliberate given that there is still time remaining until 2030 and the world has generally agreed to move into the future along the pathways of sustainable development and sustainability The book adds to the first comprehensive profiling of the impacts of tropical cyclones on southern African economies particularly that of Zimbabwe It also comes up as the first in a three volume series The other volumes to look out for are Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 2 Foundational and Fundamental Topics and Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 3 Implications for the Sustainable Development Goals To this end this book is suitable as a read for several professionals and disciplines such as tourism and hospitality studies economics sustainable development development studies environmental sciences arts geography life sciences politics planning and public health

Moral Dilemmas in the Discourse of Cinema, Ethics and Society Innocent Uwah, 2024-10-28 This is a book dedicated to underpinning ethics in cinema and society It does this by articulating the fact that human choices as done by filmmakers and movie audiences constitute sites for deconstructing ethical issues in film matters Alongside the actions of filmmakers and movie consumers are plotlines of narratives where the choices of characters are indices for navigating moral dilemmas too The arguments for censorship in today's digitally challenging world where films are more than ever consumed via online platforms is also explored This book therefore fills a gap in underpinning ethical matters at different levels of film production and consumption practices especially in examining African cinema and Nollywood Nigerian cinema in particular

The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía, 2018-04-12 Winner RUSA 2019 Outstanding References Source Winner and named a Library Journal Best Reference Book of the Year 2018 From D W Griffith's Birth of a Nation in 1915 to the recent Get Out audiences and critics alike have responded to racism in motion pictures for more than a century Whether subtle or blatant racially biased images and narratives erase minorities perpetuate stereotypes and keep alive practices of discrimination and marginalization Even in the 21st century the American film industry is not color blind evidenced by films such as Babel 2006 A Better Life 2011 and 12 Years a Slave 2013 The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Film documents one facet of racism in the film industry wherein historically underrepresented peoples are misrepresented through a lack of roles for actors of color stereotyping negative associations and an absence of rich nuanced characters Offering insights and analysis from over seventy scholars critics and activists the volume highlights issues such as Hollywood's diversity crisis White Savior films Magic Negro tropes The disconnect between screen images and lived realities of African Americans Latinos Native Americans and Asians A companion to the ever growing field of race studies this volume opens up a critical dialogue on an always timely issue The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Film will appeal to scholars of cinema race and ethnicity studies and cultural history
