Feb March 2015 Supplementary Limpopo

Masenya, Tlou Maggie, Bhuda, Monicca
Thulisile

Feb March 2015 Supplementary Limpopo:

Limpopo Life Anneli Ekblom, Michel Notelid, 2025-06-20 Limpopo Life introduces the reader to the material culture oral histories and the negotiation of conservation and landscape in an area now known as Limpopo National Park. Introducing the archaeology of a region that has not been surveyed or discussed, this book connects to the archaeology, history, heritage, and conservation discussions in the southern African region as a whole. Vegetation history and paleoecology are combined with archaeological surveys and excavations, written sources, oral histories, and travelogues to draw a picture of the diverse landscape of the Limpopo region. Intermixed within this narrative are sections that focus on an individual species, a life history, or an event, providing a view of the complex and dynamic interactions. The role of humans in this diverse environment and how they have co-evolved with other species, shaping each other's destinies in a consequential and accidental way, is outlined. This book will be of interest to researchers and students interested in the archaeology, heritage, and conservation of Mozambique, Zimbabwe, and northern South Africa. It will also be of relevance to readers interested in the social history of the Limpopo and Kruger National Parks and this cross-border area. Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education, 2016. Index-catalogue of Medical and Veterinary Zoology, 1957. The Promise of Planning Philip Harrison, Alison Todes, 2024-07-10. The Promise of Planning explores the experience of planning internationally since the global financial crisis, focusing on South Africa. The book is a response to a decade plus in which state-led planning has re-emerged as a putative means for achieving developmental goals, as indicated in global initiatives such as the New Urban Agenda, and where planning in South Africa has consolidated in terms of its legal and policy basis. However, the return of planning is happening in an inauspicious context with economic fragilities, technological shifts, political populism, institutional complexities, and more threatening to upturn the new promise of planning. The book provides a careful analytical account of planning in South Africa and how and why its promises have been difficult to achieve. Building on the author's previous book, Planning and Transformation, the book sheds light on planning as an increasingly complex and diverse governmental practice within a perpetually changing world. It can be used as a resource for planners who must make good on the new promise of planning while navigating the risks and threats of the contemporary world, as well as students and faculty interested in international planning debates and the South African case. Resurgence and Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society Masenya, Tlou Maggie, Bhuda, Monicca Thulisile, 2025-05-08. Indigenous knowledge is the comprehensive body of knowledge that locals accumulate from life experience, unofficial research, and close observation of their surroundings within a particular culture. It connects the entirety of nature and the components that sustain life to the survival of every human being. Additionally, it gives specific community conditions in respect to the environment and offers workable answers to people's problems. As a result, by preserving indigenous knowledge systems, indigenous knowledge may provide value to the community by offering innovative solutions to social, environmental, and economic issues. Resurgence and

Revalorization of Indigenous Knowledge Systems in the Contemporary Society explores the role of indigenous knowledge in the contemporary society Furthermore it discusses the importance of preserving and sharing indigenous knowledge for community development Covering topics such as epistemic diversity traditional land and indigenous curricula this book is an excellent resource for sociologists policymakers government officials environmentalists educators records managers professionals researchers scholars academicians and more

Sustainability of Southern African Ecosystems under Global Change Graham P. von Maltitz, Guy F. Midgley, Jennifer Veitch, Christian Brümmer, Reimund P. Rötter, Finn A. Resilient Cities in the Global South Lakshmi Priya Rajendran, NezHapi-Dellé Odeleye, Aysegul Can, 2025-07-22 Post pandemic cities face new challenges in adapting to global changes while also addressing the needs practices and capabilities of diverse populations Resilience as a key factor enables cities to adapt and transform in response to these challenges Development driven by resilience is crucial for urban society s ability to adapt and evolve on multiple levels However in developed countries increasingly standardised planning and development practices often hinder citizen engagement and participation which are essential for building resilient cities This book adopts an interdisciplinary approach to examine how diverse social and spatial behaviours within informal urban environments particularly in developing countries can provide fresh insights for robust urban planning and development The book is structured in three parts 1 North

South Relations this part explores the global discourse on informality highlighting its presence in both the Global North and South 2 Grassroots this part focusses on grassroots initiatives and community driven resilience within urban informality and 3 Institutional Strategies and Professional Alliances the final part delves into the role of institutions and professional collaborations in shaping urban informality By presenting a range of perspectives and experiences this book contributes to a unique Southern framework that positions informality as a dialogue for enabling resilience It will appeal to a multidisciplinary audience including professionals from fields such as sociology history environmental psychology cultural studies human geography urban design and planning architecture and anthropology

The Vaal Uprising of 1984 & the Struggle for Freedom in South Africa Franziska Rueedi, 2021 Offers new insights into the struggle against Apartheid and the poverty and inequality that instigated political resistance

Inequality and Climate Change Delgado-Ramos, Gian Carlo, 2015-12-01 Climate change is one of the most pressing challenges of the twenty first century Anthropogenic activities such as fossil fuel consumption and other activities focused on enhancing economic growth have been identified as the main drivers of changes in the environment that defy planetary boundaries The transgression of planetary boundaries has profound implications for practically all biophysical and human systems and their impact could also be related to the exacerbation of existing problems such as land tenure insecurity poverty and inequality marginalization of poorer populations climate induced migration and resource wars or conflicts From a global South perspective research on the multifaceted nature of climate change is thus necessary and appropriate including the analysis of socioeconomic political and cultural aspects This book is an outcome of the Comparative Research Workshop on Inequality and Climate Change Perspectives from the South of the South South Collaborative Programme of CLACSO CODESRIA IDEAS It gathers a diversity of case studies from the South with ample biophysical differences and particular social and cultural realities As such it is a fresh contribution offering a vantage point from which to examine some of the current perspectives on inequality and climate change
