Joyce Maynard,2006-09-30 On Mother s Day night 2004 award winning fourth grade teacher Nancy Seaman left the Tudor home she shared with her husband of thirty two years in the gated community of Farmington Hills near Detroit Michigan and drove in a driving rain storm to Home Depot to purchase a hatchet Three days later police discovered the mutilated body of Bob Seaman a successful auto industry engineer softball coach and passionate collector of vintage Mustangs in the back of the family s Ford Explorer As the shackles were placed on her wrists Nancy Seaman asserted that her husband had been beating her and she d killed him in self defense At her trial two radically different stories emerged One of the couple s sons Greg testified that his father had been abusing his mother for years The other Jeff testified for the prosecution charging his mother as a cold blooded killer Joyce Maynard s chilling work delves beyond the events of the crime itself to explore the lives of an American family who seemed to have everything Her exploration of the story led to a year s research in suburban Detroit but the story she found there will take the reader to the Depression era farm country of Illinois the working class neighborhoods of the auto industry in its heyday and even surprisingly to a Baptist church in burned out downtown Detroit Along the way we meet a Transylvanian forensic pathologist a beautiful young prosecutor an old school police chief a television news crew hungry for ratings the softball scorekeeper mom accused of carrying on an affair with the murdered man and her two shell shocked teenagers still reeling from the death of their beloved coach and a mother who has to tell her daughter why her favorite teacher won t be in school any more As in Joyce Maynard s previous books including To Die For
