Alexander, 2002-02-01 Since 1914 the French state has faced a succession of daunting and at times almost insurmountable crises The turbulent decades from 1914 to 1969 witnessed near defeat in 1914 economic and political crisis in 1926 radical political polarization in the 1930s military conquest in 1940 the

Algerian Independence and the British Left Mélanie Torrent, 2024-11-14 Based on archives from governments parties organisations and individuals this book investigates the relationship between the British left and Algerian liberation movements during the Algerian War of Independence 1954 1962 It explores the presence of representatives of the Mouvement national algérien MNA and the Front de libération nationale FLN in London where they actively sought support for peace independence from France and the global end of European domination By surveying their interactions with individuals and groups in the anticolonial left including prominent Labour MPs and Trotskyist groups Asian and African associations and students unions Torrent shows how and why solidarity was interpreted differently across the left and in relation to Britain s own end of empire conflicts Tracing connections across Europe and beyond this book demonstrates how the war influenced conceptions of socialism communism and internationalism in Britain what being European meant and what place the Commonwealth should have in a world where armed struggle and liberation diplomacy disrupted boundaries

The Rise and Fall of Modern Empires, Volume IV Martin Shipway, 2016-12-05 The collection of essays in this volume offers an overview of scholarly approaches to the ways in which diverse actors representing the colonised or the colonising nations or indeed the international community reacted to colonialism during the lifetime of the modern colonial empires or in their aftermath The coverage is broad in terms of geographical scope and historical period with articles on the major colonial empires in Asia and Africa and the imperial centres of Paris London and Berlin from the conquests of the late nineteenth century to the period of decolonisation The selection also reflects recent academic trends by focusing on countries whose colonial past and experience of decolonisation have been studied and debated with particular intensity such as Algeria Kenya and India The volume draws on previously published articles and book chapters by leading international scholars writing in or translated into English and includes a critical introduction which situates each essay in relation to recent debates in this dynamic and expanding field of study
