

SECRET TO SUCCESS

Our secret's out.

The '88 KDX200 can make a normal rider look like a pro—and make a pro into a winner.

The stone-reliable engine is now even stronger, and features the proven boost of the Kawasaki Integrated Power-valve System.

Exclusive KIPS works in two stages to ensure the power-band perfection that drives the KDX200 to championship wins against 250s.

And while the motor gives you the power to roost much larger machines, the 220-pound dry weight makes it easy.

And years of careful development let the fine-tuned suspension flatten chuckholes, rocks, and logs with almost unlimited wheel travel.

Now you know why six-time ISDE Gold Medal winner Jeff Fredette races a KDX200. And why the Test Editor of Dirt Rider said it's "the only Japanese bike I'd want to enter in a national enduro, hare scrambles, or a two-day qualifier."

The KDX200's just about the best dirtbike you can buy—at a price that's just about dirt cheap.

And that's a secret we don't mind sharing.
