SUMMER Comic Book Writing

You will need:

- Summer story brainstorming and comic pages
- Crayons, colored pencils, markers, etc.

Instructions:

1. Share this example with your child. We got in the car to go to the zoo as a family. After that we got in the car to go to the store. After a while, there was the weather to get everyone to get out! When we reached the zoo, when we walked, we thought that again. Then the zoo when it was time to go we got back in the car and drove home.
2. Ask your child if they can think of their own summer stories that have lots of details. Just like the example. Then ask your child what they know about the format of comic books (panels, speech bubbles, etc. in the newspaper). Discuss this together (in picture and text).
3. Tell the your child that they will be writing about their own summer stories. Some kids of get they will need to draw of a story about how several things that happened during their story.
4. Tell the children that first they need to come up with their summer story name. Read your child the list of summer brainstorming pages and ask them to choose one. Have them write 2-3 ideas for their story.
5. Once they have chosen one storybook using the comic book pages.
