South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI Sizonqoba! Outliving AIDS in Southern Africa Busani Ngcaweni, 2017-04-11 The aim of this book is to better understand the phenomenon of HIV in a country that has faced the fullest might of the disease and yet after first faltering has made more progress than any other country in the world in its response to HIV It aims to reflect the complexity of this narrative and the range of widely differing insights by featuring what is likely the largest number of contributors in a single publication on the subject in South Africa as well as a full spectrum of specialised areas ranging from high end science to personal reflections Glimpses into Primary School Teacher Education in South Africa Sarah Gravett, Elizabeth Henning, 2020-11-05 This book explores the current landscape of Initial Teacher Education ITE in primary schools in South Africa Considering recent policy directives and initiatives it highlights the dilemmas of ITE for the primary school and gives a thorough account of innovations and initiatives to improve ITE The book presents what works best for quality preparation of teachers in the Global South where many children rely on their teachers and school life to break the cycle of poverty Chapters draw on evidence from workplace learning pre service study and primary school teacher education policy to highlight examples of promising change in teacher education in South Africa addressing the clichés of theory versus practice head on This book successfully brings out the challenging aspects of teacher education for childhood learning which has otherwise been regarded as the softer option for a career in education This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of teacher education African education educational policy international education and comparative education Minerals Yearbook, 2013 Perspectives on Multigrade Teaching Linley Cornish, Matshidiso Joyce Taole, 2021-10-25 This book contains the results of research projects carried out in relation to multigrade teaching in Australia and South Africa Research in multigrade contexts is not commonly reported and rarely in book form The research results have implications for multigrade teachers government education personnel and university teacher educators The book also contains chapters with practical advice for multigrade teachers including examples of multigrade teaching used in an Australian seven grade class kindergarten to grade 6 Other chapters contain suggestions for practical strategies a multigrade teacher can use to reduce the workload involved in planning for multiple grades Very little is published in the area of multigrade teaching yet the number of multigrade schools worldwide is huge Developed countries still have a significant proportion of multigrade schools commonly one fifth to one third of all primary schools or classes Despite decades of centralisation of schools and expansion of transport networks the number of these schools remains high mostly in rural areas Developing countries established multigrade schools in rural areas in order to achieve the UN Millennium Development Goal of Universal Primary Education Yet specific training to teach a multigrade class remains virtually non existent in initial teacher education programs worldwide The value of this book is thus to report specific research carried out in multigrade contexts but also to provide practical help for multigrade teachers This help is needed as the teachers strive to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goal of a quality education through helping their students develop the skills and behaviours required for 21st century learning The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinodhan Naidoo, 2018-08-24 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning Systematic Reviews of Research in Basic Education in South Africa Felix Maringe, 2021-04-09 Maringe ought to be commended for putting together an invaluable contribution to our understanding of research into a complex education system in South Africa This volume provides a useful foundation to the current state of education quality in South Africa including the impact of interventions It also brings to the fore challenges still facing education transformation The evidence presented which taken together lays out a coherent view of how improvements could be made Albert Chanee Head of Planning Gauteng Department of Education For too long the weight of educational scholarship produced in South Africa has been limited to that simple and standard form called the literature review Now for the first time education researchers are provided with an African based text on the concepts and methods of conducting systematic reviews In this exceptional work of editorship Felix Maringe brings together some of the leading researchers on South African education to model and demonstrate how to review a significant body of research on a chosen topic which is adjudicated strictly on the basis of the quality and efficacy of the evidence in hand I have no doubt that this remarkable book will become a standard reference for educational researchers in and beyond the African continent It will also lift the quality of educational inquiry by equipping a new generation of scholars with the capacity for doing evidence based research that compels the attention of policymakers planners and practitioners alike Prof Jonathan Jansen Stellenbosch University Effects of Government Mandates and Policies on Public Education in Africa, the Caribbean, and the Middle East Cynthia S Sunal, Oluseyi Matthew Odebiyi, Kagendo Mutua, 2022-06-01 As the demand for education at all levels has increased so have the models of meeting these increased demands for education As in many other parts of the world public education has expanded to serve large populations across the regions of Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East Many nations in these regions have instituted mandates policies and frameworks intended to simultaneously increase access to public education opportunities as well as improve the quality of education provided and to address a wide populace Because the increase in educational demand has occurred at all levels these efforts often address various levels of education from early childhood through primary schooling junior secondary and secondary schooling and into tertiary education Efforts also have been made to increase participation in education by marginalized and or special populations The range of efforts is large with some focusing on involving migrants immigrants refugees in primary education while others aim at opening up choices at the university level Recently nations in the region have recognized the possibilities of digital learning online learning as cell phones and other widely used portable wireless devices have made it possible to sell the idea that one can learn from anywhere at any time This widespread access to technology has made it possible for governments as well as private entities to expand learning opportunities even to populations previously unreached or to address difficult to reach sectors of the population At the same time the population itself has not only increased in numbers but in diversity Maintaining quality through digital and other means of quick expansion of educational opportunities continues to be challenging if not problematic Effects of Government Mandates and Policies on Public Education in Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East is Book IX of the series Research on Education in Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East Chapters document describe and or raise critical issues and or questions resulting from government policies mandates and frameworks intended to make available public education to an ever growing populace while at the same time being mindful of improving quality of education being availed to an increasingly diverse populace The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight,Christian M. Rogerson,2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South Minerals Yearbook Mines Bureau,Geological Survey,Interior Department,2018-04-19 This edition of the U S Geological Survey USGS Minerals Yearbook discusses the performance of the worldwide minerals and materials industries during year 2013 and provides background information to assist in interpreting that performance These annual reviews are designed to provide timely statistical data on mineral commodities in various countries This volume covers data from Asia and the Pacific Each report includes sections on government policies and programs environmental issues trade and production data industry structure and ownership commodity sector developments infrastructure and a summary outlook Audience Government employees and contractors as well as businesses and employees all working in mineral related trades especially with interests in statistics about mineral commodities overseas will find this resource invaluable

The Participation Paradox Luke Sinwell,2023-02-15 The last two decades have ushered in what has become known as a participatory revolution with consultants advisors and non profits called into communities classrooms and corporations alike to listen to ordinary people With exclusively bureaucratic approaches no longer en vogue authorities now opt for open forums for engagement In The Participation Paradox Luke Sinwell argues that amplifying the voices of the poor and dispossessed is often a quick fix incapable of delivering concrete and lasting change The ideology of public consultation and grassroots democracy can be a smokescreen for a cost effective means by which to implement top down decisions As participation has become mainstreamed by governments around the world so have its radical roots become tamed by neoliberal forces that reinforce existing relationships of power Drawing from oral testimonies and ethnographic research Sinwell presents a case study of one of the poorest and most defiant Black informal settlements in Johannesburg South Africa Thembelihle which consists of more than twenty thousand residents highlighting the promises and pitfalls of participatory approaches to development Providing a critical lens for understanding grassroots democracy The Participation Paradox foregrounds alternatives capable of reclaiming participation s emancipatory potential

Whose visions for what learning? Bray, Mark,UNESCO,2025-07-11 The Archaean Geology of the Kaapvaal Craton, Southern Africa Alfred Kröner,Axel Hofmann,2019-02-20 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the evolution of one of the oldest and best exposed Archaean cratons on this planet There is currently a renewed interest in the early Earth and the Kaapvaal craton has long served as a model for early crustal evolution This unique multidisciplinary resource features information on geology tectonics geochemistry and geochronology It offers a wealth of new data on various aspects of the craton as well as contributions on the various crustal units by international specialists

Ending Plastic Waste Britta Denise Hardesty,Kathryn Willis,Justine Barrett,Chris Wilcox,2023-07-03 Many informal organisations around the world are making a positive impact on the environment and their communities by turning waste into a resource increasing the social capacity of their community and reducing the amount of pollution in their environment Ending Plastic Waste Community Actions Around the World presents a collection of stories advice and information from experts in the fields of waste management plastic pollution and environmental finance to give a broad outlook on how 19 programs from 15 different countries are protecting our planet By sharing these journeys the authors hope to encourage others to take a community approach to ending plastic waste Perfect for decision makers working in environmental and marine fields industry stakeholders and citizen scientist groups this book provides guidance on how to successfully implement a new program what resources are needed and the lessons learned by the people behind these programs in overcoming barriers
