Mr Ma And Son:

Mr Ma and Son Lao She, 2022-10-06 A deliciously funny and moving comedy of manners about the Chinese immigrant experience at the height of London's Jazz Age Mr Ma and his son Ma Wei run an antiques shop nestled in a quiet street by St Paul's Cathedral in London where far from their native Peking they struggle to navigate the bustling pavements and myriad social conventions of 1920s English society The Mas must negotiate love money misunderstandings and the London smog aided and hindered by a cast of brilliantly drawn characters their well meaning landlady Mrs Weddeburn her carefree daughter Mary old China hand Reverend Ely and his formidable wife Both a bitingly funny satire of Sino British relations and an emotionally powerful story of the experience of Chinese immigrants to the United Kingdom at the turn of the twentieth century Mr Ma and Son is a compelling witty novel from one of China's most celebrated writers Publisher Mr Ma and Son She Lao, William Dolby, 1987 Mr. Ma & Son She Lao, 1991 Mr. Ma and son in London She Lao, 2005

Interracial Lovers in Revolutionary China D. E. Mungello, 2023-07-14 In the twentieth century China underwent a monumental dynastic change and was transformed from an outmoded monarchy into a modern communist state This century of revolutionary change was marked by political upheaval and social chaos It was a period in which Chinese began to go abroad to study and conduct business while foreigners came to China for economic opportunity and adventure In the process Chinese and foreigners began to meet and form romantic relationships These love affairs fengliu yunshi are notable because they coincided with the last phase of Western imperialism including its lingering racial prejudices and even laws against interracial sexual relationships Conversely in China there were periodic outbreaks of hostility and violence against foreigners This book explores the interracial relationships of twenty two people who transcended these obstacles to cross color lines and fall in love 王康, 2005 Renowned for his absurdist re-visioning of the world and experimentation with the techniques of humour in his writings Lao She has written about most major historical events in modern China In his masterpiece Camel Xiangzi he reveals his prophetic vision of the future of China The novel depicts the life of Xiangzi a young rickshaw puller in Beijing who fails to improve his life no matter how hard he works When innocent people's hopes are destroyed they are awakened to the truth that they are but playthings of fate which is a Chinese concept for the unnameable in life's absurdities The novel demonstrates the techniques of bitter humour Lao She employs in his portrayal of characters who are caught in the endless social turmoil in the 1930s The novel's socio historical dimensions have made it a widely used text for the cultural analysis of modern China Book jacket Translingual Practice Lydia He Liu, 1995 After the first chapter which deals with the theoretical issues ensuing chapters treat particular instances of translingual practice such as national character individualism stylistic innovations first person narration and canon formation The Poetics of Grief and Melancholy in East-West Conflicts and Reconciliations Chi Sum Garfield Lau, Kelly Kar Yue Chan, 2024-03-01 This book is a collection of academic essays that examines the representation esthetics and dichotomy of the notions of grief and melancholy in East West exchanges and cultural dialogues It explores the topic in the dimensions of individual behaviors under specific social norms and cultural products such as literature film and any other forms of arts genres etc In his 1917 work Mourning and Melancholia Trauer und Melancholie Sigmund Freud connected the grief of loss with melancholic emotions which may give rise to acts of mourning He suggested that in mourning it is the world which has become poor and empty in melancholia it is the ego itself Freud 1917 246 Inspired by Freud's stance and with the goal of providing up to date intellectual resources for academics researchers and students with ardent interests in the varying exemplifications of grief and melancholy in Sino Western contexts the book serves more than a discussion over the pragmatic and ritualistic connections of grief and melancholy in relation to the inner self and the external world It aims at the pursuit of a contemporary theorization of grief and melancholy beyond its modern limits 孙 雁, She Lao, 2004 This play portrays the life of the owner of a Beijing teahouse and his customers through 50 years of upheaval in China Spanning from 1898 to the late 1940s scenes change from late Qing dynasty to the early days of the Republic then after to post 1945 when Guomindang soldiers take over the city Intercultural Communication with China Fred Dervin, Regis Machart, 2017-05-15 A major objective of this book is to identify the key determinants of the East and the West in the field of intercultural communication It examines but also counter attacks essentialist and culturalist analyses of intercultural communication between China and the rest of the world Offering a cross country examination and comparison of drought awareness and experience this book shows two fields of research which are complementary but rarely found side by side i e the Arts and Intercultural Encounters serve as illustrations for theoretical and methodological discussions about intercultural communication between China and the West Scholarly and media discourses will find this work thought provoking instructive and informative The Caravan 2018 Delhi Press Magazine, 2018-08-07 The country's first and only publication devoted to narrative journalism The Caravan occupies a singular position among Indian magazines It is a new kind of magazine for a new kind of reader one who demands both style and substance Since its relaunch in January 2010 the magazine has earned a reputation as one of the country's most sophisticated publications a showcase for the region's finest writers and a distinctive blend of rigorous reporting incisive criticism and commentary stunning photo essays and gripping new fiction and poetry Its commitment to great storytelling has earned it the respect of readers from around the world India's best English language magazine The Guardian London For those with an interest in India it has become an absolute must read The New Republic Washington The Caravan fills a niche in the Indian media that has remained vacant for far too long catering to the intellectually curious and aesthetically refined reader who seeks a magazine of exceptional quality Morality and the Literary Imagination Gabriel R. Ricci, In a letter to Boccaccio Petrarch extolled the virtue of poetry and letters for promoting an understanding of both human nature and morals The letter was designed to console him after hearing a prediction that he was soon to die and that he ought to renounce poetry The prophecy came from an elder renowned for his piety but Petrarch admonished that too often dishonesty and fraud are couched in religious sentiments Nothing not even death according to Petrarch ought to divert us from literature For Petrarch Virgil was the source for understanding how literary studies not only promote eloquence but enhance morals If anything literature dispels the fear of death The claims of this volume is that it may be the case that the virtuous life can be achieved by those ignorant of letters but a more direct and certain route is guaranteed by a devotion to literature The collected works in this new volume of the Transaction series Religion and Public Life heeds Petrarch's advice that literature not only orients us to life's developmental stages it can provide us with a more complete understanding of the human character while artfully advancing morals To this end Michelle Darnell's opening chapter entitled A New Age of Reason explains how existentialism is an argument for how literature can take on philosophical form not as formal argument but as persuasive narrative Over the objections of even those who study Sartre Darnell uses Sartre's The Age of Reason as a model and shows how his literary output was a legitimate philosophical inquiry In addition to the Darnell piece the volume boasts a series of outstanding and innovative works by scholars in the field Taken together as a whole these authors not only illustrate the moral consequences of an original choice but oblige the reader to explore the ramifications of such a choice in one's own life Gabriel R Ricci is professor of humanities and the chair of the Department of History at Elizabethtown College He is the author of Time Consciousness The Philosophical Uses of History and the editor of Transaction's much admired Religion and Public Life series

Lao She and the Chinese Revolution Ranbir Vohra, 2020-03-17 By exhaustively analyzing Lao She's literary writings Vohra traces the development of his political consciousness and convictions Answers are sought for crucial questions Why did Lao She drift to a leftist position Why did he return voluntarily to China Why did he become disenchanted with the authoritarian regime And why did he commit suicide Besides being an introduction to the life and works of Lao She this book contributes to a greater understanding of the nature of the social and political change in twentieth century China

Fictional Realism in Twentieth-century China Dewei Wang, 1992 Although deconstruction has become a popular catchword as an intellectual movement it has never entirely caught on within the university For some in the academy deconstruction and Jacques Derrida in particular are responsible for the demise of accountability in the study of literature Countering these facile dismissals of Derrida and deconstruction Herman Rapaport explores the incoherence that has plagued critical theory since the 1960s and the resulting legitimacy crisis in the humanities Against the backdrop of a rich informed discussion of Derrida's writings and how they have been misconstrued by critics and admirers alike The Theory Mess investigates the vicissitudes of Anglo American criticism over the past thirty years and proposes some possibilities for reform

Dombey and son. Old curiosity shop. Hard times Charles Dickens, 1868 Money and Interculturality Fred Dervin, 2025-07-23 This book challenges the silence surrounding money revealing its profound influences on personal and social identities and power dynamics in intercultural contexts In this inimitable book Fred Dervin continues to explore the notion of interculturality by offering a novel and critical exploration of the often overlooked role of money especially within the broad field of Intercultural Communication Education and Research ICER Adopting a robust interdisciplinary lens and drawing on concrete examples the author combines for example financial education literature philosophy and sociology to critique the economic and moral dimensions of global interactions in today s confused and confusing world From examining the commodification of intercultural relations to proposing shared responsibility and ethical reasoning Money and Interculturality A Theory provides a fresh perspective on how money shapes and often distorts interculturality Based on a unique integration of contemporary historical and literary insights Dervin questions and deepens our understanding of interculturality while equipping readers with new vocabulary and frameworks to address the harsh realities of global unpredictable and power laden communication This somewhat provocative book represents an essential reference for educators practitioners researchers and students seeking to investigate the connections between money and interculturality

British Modernism and Chinoiserie Anne Witchard,2015-03-01 This volume examines the ways in which an intellectual vogue for a mythic China was a constituent element of British modernism Traditionally defined as a decorative style that conjured a fanciful and idealized notion of China chinoiserie was revived in in London s avant garde circles the Bloomsbury group the Vorticists and others who like their eighteenth century forebears turned to China as a cultural and aesthetic utopia As part of Modernism s challenge to the universality of so called Western values and aesthetics the turn to China would contribute much more than has been acknowledged to Modernist thinking As these 10 new chapters demonstrate China as an intellectual and aesthetic utopia dazzled intellectuals and aesthetes at the same time the consumption of Chinese exoticism became commercialized The essays show that from cutting edge Modernist chic to mass culture and consumer products the vogue for chinoiserie style and motifs permeated the art and design of the period
