Essential Readings In Comparative Politics 4th Edition:

The HISOFE Dictionary of Midnight Politics Fossungu, Peter Ateh-Afac, 2014-12-01 Building on Fossungu's earlier works and essentially providing Africa with original critical and multi level analyses of the trio of globalization democracy and national determination this book theorizes that African states have to unite in order to have any impact in the global economy Using the failure of the Cameroon Goodwill Association of Montreal CGAM as a case study the book urges Africans to make hard choices and avoid politickerization and midnight politics in favour of fossungupalogy that is the science of straightforwardness necessitating the fearless looking at truth straight in the eye The questions of the book are many but do all boil down to whether or not Africans fear the truth and do not therefore do politics It is amazing that Africans in the West live in societies where fierce political competitors do embrace each other after one has defeated the other but they are incapable of looking their so called friends in the eye and saying for example Man I think you've totally gotten it wrong this time Such comportment defines politickerization or negative competition While attempting some possible responses to the numerous queries it raises this book basically proffers the science of Four Eyesism as a discipline that all African schools need to institute and make a compulsory subject if the vandalized continent would have to be awakened to its realities This book is rich in Fossungu's dazzling capacity to invent define and use a multitude of new terminological constructs informed by African experiences

ESSENTIAL READINGS IN COMPARATIVE POLITICS. PATRICK H. AND RONALD ROGOWSKI. O'NEIL, 2022 The Challenge of Politics Douglas W. Simon, Joseph Romance, 2022-01-04 The Challenge of Politics balances classic political theory with contemporary politics to help students understand the fundamental questions of political science The authors relate insights of classic political thinkers both to their modern counterparts and to the political dynamics of American comparative and international affairs Essential Readings in Comparative Politics Patrick H.

O'Neil, Ronald Rogowski, 2004-01 The Challenge of Politics Neal Riemer, Douglas W. Simon, Joseph Romance, 2015-12-17 The Challenge of Politics introduces students to the fundamental questions of political science With a distinctive normative approach that portrays politics as a potentially humanizing enterprise authors Neal Riemer Douglas W. Simon and Joseph Romance equip readers to recognize major forms of government evaluate research findings and understand how policy issues directly affect people's lives This comprehensive text balances classic and contemporary political theory with current events and empirical study The Fifth Edition is fully revised to reflect recent national and international developments including a new chapter on American Politics and Government Challenge of Politics, 4th Edition Neal Riemer, Douglas W. Simon, Joseph Romance, 2013-02-15 So often political science is introduced to students as a segmented field The Challenge of Politics instead enables students to see how the subfields converge around a set of crucial questions can we as citizens and students articulate and defend a view of the good political life and its guiding political values Can we develop a science of politics to help us understand significant political phenomena the empirical realities of politics Can we bring a high level of political prudence or wisdom to bear on judgments about politics and public issues Can citizens and students creatively address the future of politics Riemer Simon and Romance aim to harmonize the valuable lessons of classic and contemporary theory as well as to reconcile politics to scientific and empirical study The book gives students an avenue to explore the impact of philosophy and ideology to recognize major forms of government to evaluate empirical findings and to understand how policy issues directly affect people's lives Throughout the authors look at political dynamics of American comparative and international affairs While continuing to pursue its distinctive normative approach and showing politics to be a potentially humanizing enterprise this new edition of Challenge has been revised and updated for major world events like the global financial crisis recent elections in the U S and elsewhere important policy decisions like the recent Supreme Court ruling in the U S on healthcare and the aftermath of the Arab Spring Based on reviewer feedback it has also been substantially streamlined throughout

Africans and Negative Competition in Canadian Factories Ateh-Afac Fossungu, 2015-02-02 According to Fossungu we need healthy competition for progress Competition that is not geared toward progress is negative competition No competition or the absence of self help is negative competition With factories competing healthily consumers have a variety of quality goods and services from which to choose The entire community benefits when people in any grouping are competing positively thus making the rules of competition graphical The central focus of this book is the extent to which Canadian regulations apply without discrimination to all of Canada and to everyone individuals and corporations alike A swift answer is affirmative But is that really it The book is also about voluntary slavery which is worse than forced enslavement Drawing on Ignorance Theory the book argues that the worst thing that can happen to anyone is to be ignorant of one's ignorance He who does not know what he does not know will never know Voluntary African slaves generally employ One Has

No Choice On na pas le choix to cloak their having chosen not to secure their rights Fossungu demonstrates why he considers this an escapist way of shying away from doing the normal thing thus giving the dictator or oppressor reason to dictate and oppress with impunity This is Fossungu at his provocative and controversial best Essential Readings in Comparative Politics, Second Edition Patrick H. Buettner, 2013-10-23 Regional development strategies are becoming more similar all around Europe even though regional differences are more pronounced than ever and many European regions have become more autonomous actors This thesis of a peculiar standardized diversification of sub national space in the modern European Union is the point of departure of this book Based upon the analytical premises of Stanford School Sociological Institutionalism Sebastian M B ttner studies regional mobilization in contemporary Europe from a new and innovative perspective He highlights the importance of scientific expertise and global scientific models in contemporary regional development practice and exemplifies their significance with the example of region building in Poland in the course of EU integration This new wave of regional mobilization is not just conceived as an effect of local national or European politics but as an expression of a larger conceptual shift in governing society and space This well researched and clearly argued book not only provides fresh insights into region building and regionalization in contemporary European space but also contributes to the new sociology of Europeanization It will be an illuminating read for scholars and students in Sociology European and EU studies International Relations Cultural Studies Geography Regional Science Polish Studies and related subject areas Globalism and Comparative Public policies as well as their impact on economic development and capacity building in several African countries It uses primary and secondary data to present the argument that without the full input of women sustainable development will not be achieved in many African countries This book is the first text written by knowledgeable gender issue experts that understand the culture of and lived and conducted research in Africa It provides many examples of the relationships between gender and economic development around the African continent highlighting different processes and practices As such the contributors here illustrate the impact of weak gender policies and the ability to adequately develop female capacity building that could lead to wide spread sustainable economic growth in Africa They also explore a wide range of new dimensions and variables that are commonly ignored by other text books on gender equality The book will help graduate undergraduate students and other readers to understand women s policies in the past present and future by analysing and illustrating cultural political and socio historical contexts which have shaped women s role in the economic and sustainable development of Africa The Path to Mass Rebellion Ruth Margolies Beitler,2004-01-01 The Path to Mass Rebellion An Analysis of Two Intifadas should be read by policy makers international relations and conflict resolution scholars Middle East Studies scholars political scientists and anyone else interested in better understanding the current violence surrounding the creation of a Palestinian state and security issues this creates for Israel Corruption and Transformation in a Developing Economy Chima B.

book uses an open explorative approach to deal with the different aspects of gender discrimination and gender empowerment

Ukwuije,2019-07-01 This is a contemporary book for everyone but it is more relevant to those who wish to know why we say corruption is an enemy to the society how it starts what propels it and what the society suffers as a result of corruption It is not an over expectation for the workers to look up to their manager and the citizens to look up to the elected politicians for welfare projects because according to the book the primary responsibility of democratic governments especially in developing economies is the protection of lives and properties of her citizens providing welfare schemes and creating an enabling ground for her citizens to strive for their self development Corruption has rubbed us of all these The citizens entrusted their collective will in the hands of the elected politicians believing that they will make the society a better place to live but in return we have a society tightly dotted with terrorists and politically motivated attacks on the innocent citizens The country became difficult for an average man to survive in leading to irregular migration even to less developing economies where at least they can be sure of security Comparative Politics ,1972 Canada 2012 Wayne C.
