Fin de Millénaire French Fiction Ruth Cruickshank, 2009-10-08 In this closely analytical study Cruickshank reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet in the context of the turn of the millennium in France which coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market Les dernières lueurs d'un flambeau qui s'éteint Jean Baptiste F.E. de Chatelain,1874 Transcendentalism Overturned Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2011-04-02 This collection offers a critical assessment of transcendentalism the understanding of consciousness absolutized as a system of a priori laws of the mind that was advanced by Kant and Husserl As these studies show transcendentalism critically informed 20th Century phenomenological investigation into such issues as temporality historicity imagination objectivity and subjectivity freedom ethical judgment work praxis Advances in science have now provoked a questioning of the absolute prerogatives of consciousness Transcendentalism is challenged by empirical reductionism And recognition of the role the celestial sphere plays in life on planet earth suggests that a radical shift of philosophy s center of gravity be made away from absolute consciousness and toward the transcendental forces at play in the architectonics of the cosmos

Destiny Domesticated Jos de Mul,2014-01-30 Destiny Domesticated investigates three ways Western civilization has tried to tame fate the heroic affirmation of fate in the tragic culture of the Greeks the humble acceptance of divine providence in Christianity and the abolition of fate in modern technological society Against this background Jos de Mul argues that the uncontrollability of technology introduces its own tragic dimension to our culture Considering a range of literary texts and contemporary events and drawing on twenty five centuries of tragedy interpretation from philosophers such as Aristotle Hegel Nietzsche and Heidegger literary critics George Steiner and Terry Eagleton and others de Mul articulates a contemporary perspective on the tragic shedding new light on philosophical topics such as free will determinism and the contingency of life Interventions 2020 Michel Houellebecq,2022-03-02 The death of God in the West was the prelude to a formidable metaphysical soap opera that continues to this day Christianity s masterstroke was to combine a fierce belief in the individual with the promise of eternal participation in the Absolute When that dream evaporated various attempts were made to offer the individual a minimum of being The latest of these attempts is advertising which seeks to arouse desire and transform the subject into a docile phantom doomed to follow advertising's every whim But like all previous attempts this skin deep superficial participation in the world fails and unhappiness and depression continue to spread However we can all produce a cold revolution in ourselves by stepping outside the flow of information and advertising We need to take some time out unplug the television turn off our iPhones stop buying stuff stop wanting to buy stuff temporarily detach ourselves and adopt an aesthetic attitude to the world We just need to stay still for a few seconds This is one of the key themes developed by Michel Houellebecq in this collection of his texts and interviews from the last three decades Here he explains and elaborates his point of view discusses his novels and addresses a wide range of topics from politics religion and literature to suicide euthanasia and paedophilia An indispensable book for anyone interested in the work of one of the most widely read and controversial novelists of our time Michel Houellebecq Douglas

While the sublime has garnered a great deal of critical attention over the past twenty years its counterpart bathos has yet to receive any extended treatment Generally understood as an inadvertent descent to the low vulgar and ludicrous in writing or art the term bathos was popularised by Pope who used it to satirise his contemporaries Ironically likening bathos to the depths of profundity Pope lauded his peers for their influential writings whilst openly deriding their absurd misuses of figure and rhetorical device Pope's method proved prophetic today artists regularly celebrate and incorporate bathetic practice This essay collection considers how bathos has become so central to literature fine art and music The innovative and diverse contributions assess the consequences of this endemic inversion of aesthetic standards and consider where artistic production might go after hitting and so comfortably inhabiting rock bottom The Terror of Evidence Marcus

Widely acknowledged as an important if highly controversial figure in contemporary literature French novelist and poet Michel Houellebecq has elicited diverse critical responses In this book Carole Sweeney examines his novels as a response to the advance of neoliberalism into all areas of affective human life This historicizing study argues that le monde houellebecquien is an atomised society of banal quotidian alienation populated by quietly resentful men who are the botched subjects of late capitalism Addressing Houellebecq's handling of the failure of the radical thought of 68 Sweeney looks at the ways in which his fiction treats feminism the decline of religion and the family as well as the obsolescence of French theory and the Sartrean notion of engaged literature Reading the world with the disappointed idealism of a contemporary moralist Houellebecq's novels Sweeney argues fluctuate between despair for the world as it is and a limp utopian hope for a post humanity
