

Abstract

Force was used only in very rare cases through section 8. However, information has been made available. Subsequent paragraph 8 statement (1984) that the use of force, and Section 8, was "practically non-existent".

Subsequent letter to Canadian Legation, 1984, that there were no use of force in the past, and that the information on past human rights violations was not sufficient.

1. Identify the problem: The problem is that the company is not meeting its financial goals.

2. Analyze the problem: The company is not meeting its financial goals because it is not controlling its costs.

3. Develop a solution: The company should implement a cost control program.

4. Implement the solution: The company should implement a cost control program by setting standards for costs and comparing actual costs to these standards.

5. Evaluate the solution: The company should evaluate the results of the cost control program by comparing actual costs to the standards.
