Folie De Femme:

Traité de la folie des femmes enceintes, des nouvelles accouchées et des nourrices Louis Victor Marcé, 1858
Convergences and Interferences Kathleen Gyssels, Isabel Hoving, Maggie Ann Bowers, 2001 This bi lingual volume of twelve English and eight French papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multi lingual and multi cultural dialogue The focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences     Le Contrat de Mariage Honore de Balzac, Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112124395697 and Others ,1907     Cincinnati Public Library ,1884     Finding List of Books in the Public Library of Cincinnati Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, 1884
Problems in Eugenics ,1912     Le rouge et le noir Stendhal, 2025-08-19 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage     Revue Des Français. Année 5 No. 10-année 10. No. 9. Oct. 1910-nov./dč. 1915 ,1913     Les Points Noirs, comédie en un acte [and in prose]. Albert WOLFF (pseud.), 1870     Consumer Chronicles David H. Walker, 2011-03-31 At a time when the world is contemplating the depletion of non renewable natural resources the consumer society is increasingly being called into question This is nowhere more acutely evident than in France where since its beginnings in the nineteenth century the consumer revolution extending market forces into every area of social and private life has been perceived as a challenge to core elements in French culture such as traditional artisan crafts and small businesses serving local communities Cultural historians and sociologists have charted the increasing commercialisation of everyday life over the twentieth century but few have paid systematic attention to the crucial testimony provided by the authors of narrative fiction Consumer Chronicles rectifies this omission by means of close readings of a series of novels selected for their authentic portrayal of consumer behaviour and analysed in relation to their social cultural and historical contexts Walker s study offering an imaginative interdisciplinary panorama covering the impact of affluence on French shoppers shopkeepers and society provides telling new insights into the history and characteristics of the consumer mentality     Husbands, Wives, and Lovers Patricia Mainardi, 2003-01-01 In this interdisciplinary exploration of the cultural and social history of early 19th century France Patricia Mainardi focuses on what was considered a major social problem of the time adultery In a period when expectations about marriage were changing the problems of husbands wives and lovers became a major theme in theatre literature and the visual arts The author demonstrates that this intense interest was historically grounded in the post revolutionary collision between the new concept of the individual s right to happiness and the traditional prerogatives of family and state duty or happiness more important Are arranged marriages doomed to be empty of love and poisoned by adultery Should adulterous wives and their lovers be punished while husbands may commit adultery with impunity Out of such legal social and cultural debates ultimately emerged modern bourgeois family values Mainardi argues And she illuminates how art in all its varieties both influences and is influenced by social change OEuvres Complètes de H. de Balzac Honoré de Balzac,1877 Middle French proverbs, sentences, and proverbial phrases James Woodrow Hassell,1982 Sale Anderson Galleries, Inc,1912

The Other Enlightenment Carla Hesse,2018-06-05 The French Revolution created a new cultural world that freed women from the constraints of corporate privilege aristocratic salons and patriarchal censorship even though it failed to grant them legal equality Women burst into print in unprecedented numbers and became active participants in the great political ethical and aesthetic debates that gave birth to our understanding of the individual as a self creating self determining agent Carla Hesse tells this story delivering a capacious history of how French women have used writing to create themselves as modern individuals Beginning with the marketplace fishwives and salon hostesses whose eloquence shaped French culture low and high and leading us through the accomplishments of Simone de Beauvoir Hesse shows what it meant to make an independent intellectual life as a woman in France She offers exquisitely constructed portraits of the work and mental lives of many fascinating women including both well known novelists and now obscure pamphleteers who put pen to paper during and after the Revolution We learn how they negotiated control over their work and authorial identity whether choosing pseudonyms like Georges Sand or forsaking profits to sign their own names We encounter the extraordinary Louise de K ratio Robert a critically admired historian who re created herself as a revolutionary novelist We meet aristocratic women whose literary criticism subjected them to slander as well as writers whose rhetoric cost them not only reputation but marriage citizenship and even their heads Crucially their stories reveal how the unequal terms on which women entered the modern era shaped how they wrote and thought Though women writers and thinkers championed the full range of political and social positions from royalist to Jacobin from ultraconservative to fully feminist they shared common moral perspectives and representational strategies Unlike the Enlightenment of their male peers theirs was more skeptical than idealist more situationalist than universalist And this alternative project lies at the very heart of modern French letters Traite International de Psychologie Pathologique : Psychopathologie Generale A. Marie (ed),1910 The Feminist Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori,1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems French women continued writing through the ages their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived A few writers such as Marie de France George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon But critics mostly male had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer s awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers
