Go Big Red Mike Babcock, Michael Babcock, 1998-08-15 Nebraska has enjoyed thirty six consecutive winning seasons made twenty nine consecutive bowl appearances and won five national championships including three in the last four seasons During that time the Cornhuskers have had just two head coaches Bob Devaney and Tom Osborne Without question this is the golden era of Cornhusker football and Go Big Red is a celebration of that indisputable fact. It is much more than a trivia book; it goes beyond the hefty and comprehensive media guides published each season by the Nebraska Sports Information Office. The book covers Nebraska football in a way no other publication has, with personality profiles, anecdotes, and original research as well as questions of fact and trivia, some of which will test even the most devoted and knowledgeable Cornhusker fans. Some things you'll remember. There is a section devoted to the best of Broderick Thomas, the loquacious outside linebacker. And there are also some things you won't remember or things you might not have known. Can you name all of the assistant coaches on Osborne's first staff in 1973? Can you list Nebraska's starters for the 1941 Rose Bowl game? Do you know how the Blackshirt tradition began? Devaney was a master storyteller, and the book includes a humorous story or two of his. The program became a haven for walk-ons under Osborne, and the book includes an all-walk-on team. Though Nebraska is enjoying its greatest successes now, Cornhusker football was king long ago. And the book offers insight into that past glory achieved by the likes of Jumbo Stiehm, Ed Weir, and Guy Chamberlin. All-American Trev Albert, the Butkus Award winner in 1993, has expressed the meaning of Cornhusker football in the introduction, which is an integral part of the book's experience. Reading Go Big Red isn't the same as sitting in Memorial Stadium awash in red on game day. But it's the next best thing.

Cassell's Complete Book of Sports and Pastimes, 1896      The Best of Yank, the Army Weekly, 1942-1945, 1980

Yank is the fascinating weekly newspaper that was dedicated to the GI Joe of World War II. The best of Yank is history, current events, social commentary, sports, history, entertainment, sex, and homespun advice, all rolled into one. It captures both the spirit of the World War II GI and the grim reality of the violence he encountered. Here are in-depth war news articles and reports from all of the fronts, honest evaluations of America's allies and their military efforts, realistic estimations of the enemy's strong and weak points, helpful hints on how to clean a rifle, with some suggestions from the Germans, advice on how to prepare income tax returns, or make certain that remittance checks reach family and loved ones, predictions about what to expect after discharge, and luscious Hollywood pinups of Jean Parker, Betty Grable, Esther Williams, and Lena Horne. Each issue contains irreverent Sad Sack cartoons, magnificent and moving photographic coverage of great battles, lethal skirmishes, and front-line living conditions, and even crossword puzzles and other games of skill.
