Bazaluk, 2023-09-25 This book is a contribution to the philosophical discourse on education Education is considered a tool of philosophy Education paideia and politics politeia are equal in importance for building a sustainable society free from feud and unhappiness Discursive thinking through of education is based on Plato's dialogues and the results of epistemological metaphysical and ethical research in the fields of cosmology sociology and neuroscience The author demonstrates the potential of the threefold scheme of philosophy a Platonic philosophic triplex for ordering individual and collective discourse and way of life in strict accordance with the intelligible complexity of the expanding cosmos An essential read for students and scholars interested in the crossroad between education and philosophy

Renewing Royal Imagery Arlette

David, 2020-09-25 In Renewing Royal Imagery Akhenaten and Family in the Amarna Tombs Arlette David offers a systematic in depth analysis of the visual presentation of ancient Egyptian kingship during Akhenaten's reign circa 1350 B C in the elite tombs of his new capital domain of his god Aten and attempts to answer two basic questions how can Amarna imagery look so blatantly Egyptian and yet be intrinsically different And why did it need to be so

Inside Abstraction Carolyn Dean, 2025-09-23 Illuminating the abstract art of the Inka what it conveys about Inka values and its relationship to those who view it Inka visual culture is unusual in its tendency toward abstraction Public stonework vessels used at state feasts garments worn by the imperial elite these objects announcing status and power are adorned with geometric designs that refuse figuration After searching in vain for hidden referents many scholars have largely given up the search for meaning Inside Abstraction develops a novel interpretation Eminent art historian Carolyn Dean proposes that Inka geometries are neither ornamental nor coded depictions of other objects Rather Dean shows that in the Andean world the designs were functionally self aware possessing perspectives of their own quite literally looking back at and addressing viewers directly Further Dean contends that these agent abstractions were teachers conveying particular messages concerning social hierarchy the relations among geometries and colors instructed viewers as to their own proper social relations Inka designs thereby served imperial aims by wordlessly communicating the state's values and demands for submission Extensively illustrated and rigorously argued Inside Abstraction is a dramatic step forward in our understanding of Inka art and political order
