Contemporary Obstetrics and Gynecology for Developing Countries Friday

Okonofua, Joseph A. Balogun, Kunle Odunsi, Victor N. Chilaka, 2021-08-05 This book is a comprehensive and easy to read guide to obstetrics and gynecology in developing countries Although significant progress has been made towards the reduction of maternal mortality and morbidity globally they are still unacceptably high in developing countries This can be directly or indirectly tied to poor quality maternal health care and lack of access to cost effective comprehensive healthcare Health practitioners in developing countries also contend with trying to keep abreast of recent developments in obstetrics and gynecology while dealing with lack of time resources and access to relevant information This textbook was thus created by experts in obstetrics and gynecology with extensive experience in African clinical settings and consultants in developed countries to teach proper and accurate diagnosis treatment and management of gynecologic and obstetric health issues within the context of developing countries This second edition has been fully updated throughout with an added 25 chapters that cover topics such as reproductive health gynecological cancers and research methods The book is divided into six sections Women s Reproductive Health Obstetrics Medical and Surgical Disorders in Pregnancy General Gynecology Gynecological Malignancies Health Systems Organization Research Methodology and Biostatistics These section topics have been carefully covered by expert authors with the use of valid scientific data policy instruments and adapted to the cultural and social context of developing countries with particular in depth coverage of conditions that have greater prevalence and incidence in developing countries Each chapter also focuses on filling gaps in knowledge with a distinct pedagogical approach starting with a set of learning objectives and ending with key takeaways for the chapter This is an ideal guide for residents medical students practitioners of obstetrics and gynecology midwives general practitioners and pediatricians particularly those working in developing countries Building Babies Kathryn B.H. Clancy, Katie Hinde, Julianne N. Rutherford, 2012-08-27 The ontogeny of each individual contributes to the physical physiological cognitive neurobiological and behavioral capacity to manage the complex social relationships and diverse foraging tasks that characterize the primate order For these reasons Building Babies explores the dynamic multigenerational processes of primate development The book is organized thematically along the developmental trajectory conception pregnancy lactation the mother infant dyad broader social relationships and transitions to independence In this volume the authors showcase the myriad approaches to understanding primate developmental trajectories from both proximate and ultimate perspectives These collected chapters provide insights from experimental manipulations in captive settings to long term observations of wild living populations and consider levels of analysis from molecule to organism to social group to taxon Strepsirrhines New World monkeys Old World monkeys apes and humans are all well represented Contributions by anthropologists microbiologists psychologists population geneticists and other primate experts provide Building Babies a uniquely diverse voice Building Babies features multi and trans disciplinary research approaches to primate developmental trajectories and is particularly useful for researchers and instructors in anthropology animal behavior psychology and evolutionary biology This book also serves as a supplement to upper level undergraduate courses or graduate seminars on primate life history and development In these contexts the book provides exposure to a wide range of methodological and theoretical perspectives on developmental trajectories and models how researchers might productively integrate such approaches into their own work Asian Sources Electronics ,2005

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 Tourism and Responsibility Martin Mowforth,Clive Charlton,Ian Munt,2008 This book discusses the responsibility or otherwise of tourism activities in Latin America and the Caribbean It considers issues such as the reduction of poverty through tourism and the conflict between increasing volumes of air travel spent in our continuing search for pleasure and the resulting contribution to global warming The authors believe that tourism can only be adequately assessed through a consideration of how it fits into the structure of power It is also argued that tourism cannot be analyzed without a consideration of its impacts on and links with development This relationship between tourism responsibility power and development is explored in chapters covering both the macro and the micro level of responsibility The authors look at methods of practising tourism responsibly or irresponsibly at the personal company national and international levels The questions and dilemmas of placing responsibility in the tourism industry are examined throughout Widely illustrating all these themes and issues with examples and case studies from throughout the sub continent this book will be of importance to students and academics and to the work of practitioners of development and tourism related projects run by both governmental and non governmental aid and development agencies Christian Interculture Arun W. Jones,2021-02-26 Despite the remarkable growth of Christianity in Africa Asia and Latin America in the twentieth century there is a dearth of primary material produced by these Christians This volume explores the problem of writing the history of indigenous Christian communities in the Global South Many such indigenous Christian groups pass along knowledge orally and colonial forces have often not deemed their ideas and activities worth preserving In some instances documentation from these communities has been destroyed by people or nature Highlighting the creative solutions that historians have found to this problem the essays in this volume detail the strategies employed in discerning the perspectives ideas activities motives and agency of indigenous Christians The contributors approach the problem on a case by case basis acknowledging the impact of diverse geographical cultural political and ecclesiastical factors This volume will inspire historians of World Christianity to critically interrogate and imaginatively use existing Western and indigenous documentary material in writing the history of Christianity in Asia Africa the Americas and Oceania In addition to the editor the contributors to this volume include J J Carney Adrian Hermann Paul Kollman Kenneth Mills Esther Mombo Mrinalini Sebastian Christopher Vecsey Haruko Nawata Ward and Yanna Yannakakis Popular Photography ,1996-04
