Hymns and the music the church sings are tangible means of expressing worship. And while worship is one of if not the central functions of the church along with mission service, education, justice, and compassion, and occupies a prime focus of our churches, a renewed sense of awareness to our theological presuppositions and cultural cues must be maintained to ensure a proper focus in worship. Hymns and Hymnody: Historical and Theological Introductions is a 60 chapter three volume introductory textbook describing the most influential hymnists, liturgists, and musical movements of the church. This academically grounded resource evaluates both the historical and theological perspectives of the major hymnists and composers that have impacted the church over the course of twenty centuries. Volume 1 explores the early church and concludes with the Renaissance era hymnists. Volume 2 begins with the Reformation and extends to the eighteenth century hymnists and liturgists. Volume 3 engages nineteenth century hymnists to the contemporary movements of the twenty first century. Each chapter contains these five elements: historical background, theological perspectives, communicated in their hymns, compositions, contribution to liturgy and worship, notable hymns, and bibliography. The mission of Hymns and Hymnody is 1 to provide biographical data on influential hymn writers for students and interested laypeople, and 2 to provide a theological analysis of what these composers have communicated in the theology of their hymns. We believe it is vital for those involved in leading the worship of the church to recognize that what they communicate is in fact theology. This latter aspect we contend is missing yet important in accessible formats for the current literature.

The Sounds of Our Offerings Charlotte Kroeker, 2011-10-24. The Sounds of Our Offerings is good news about the music of the church. It recounts what has been learned from studying nine congregations where music promotes the full active conscious participation of the worshipers and where it has done so consistently and coherently for many years. Pastors and musicians reflect on their work together and offer rich insights about what works and what does not. Lay musicians and members of the congregation also share their experiences with music in worship. Though no site was without its struggles and at times difficult choices had to be made, for the most part we see unremarkable week to week, year to year faithful rendering of music for prayer and praise. We see that sometimes the nature of the music took a slightly different turn, one that built upon the foundations of the past. The music choices in these churches are not restricted to one particular era or style but rather reflect the broader church's music repertoire including the best recently written music. These are the stories of churches with a reputation for their fine music programs, churches that with their leaders and congregations have worked out these programs in consistent, coherent ways. In most cases the programs span multiple priests, pastors, and musicians. The Sounds of Our Offerings is about excellent music and how it has found its way into the life and faith practices of these congregations
