Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05
Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years Conflict and Governance Susan Brown, 2005 The Authors interrogate the manner in which South Africa's changing economy is re-shaping the political and the social landscape Based on in depth analysis of the data suggestions are made for future policy development Finance Week, 2000-11

Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa, 2007 The Routledge Handbook on Livelihoods in the Global South Fiona Nunan, Clare Barnes, Sukanya Krishnamurthy, 2022-05-05 The Routledge Handbook on Livelihoods in the Global South presents a unique timely comprehensive overview of livelihoods in low and middle income countries Since their widespread adoption in the 1990s livelihoods perspectives frameworks and methods have influenced diverse areas of research policy and practice The concept of livelihoods reflects the complexity of strategies and practices used by individuals households and communities to meet their needs and live their lives The Handbook brings together insights and critical analysis from diverse approaches and experiences learning from research and practice over the last 30 years The Handbook comprises an introductory section on key concepts and frameworks followed by five parts on researching livelihoods negotiating livelihoods generating livelihoods enabling livelihoods and contextualising livelihoods The introduction provides readers with an appreciation of concepts researched and applied in the five parts including chapters on vulnerability and resilience social capital and networks and institutions Each part reflects the diversity of approaches taken to understanding livelihoods whilst recognising commonalities including the centrality of power in shaping enabling and constraining livelihoods The book also reflects diversity of context including conflict climate change and religion as well as in generating livelihoods through agriculture small scale mining and pastoralism The aim of each chapter is to provide a critically informed introduction and overview of key concepts issues and debates of relevance to the topic with each chapter concluding with suggestions for further reading It will be an essential resource to students researchers and practitioners of international development and related fields Researchers and practitioners will also benefit from the book s diverse disciplinary contributions and by the wide and contemporary coverage Developing a Policy Framework for Out-of-school Youth in South Africa David Everatt,Ross Jennings,1996 The Mbeki Legacy Brian Pottinger,2008 Brian Pottinger has distilled a mountain of statistics and factual data into an accessible non academic compelling analysis of South African politics and society a fascinating glimpse into South Africa s political future Drum ,2007 Financial Mail ,2000-01-07
