Friendly Letter To Grandparents

July 20, 2057

[YOUR NAME]

[YOUR ADDRESS]

Dear Grandpa and Grandma,

How are you, my beloved ones? I am writing to you to tell you how much I miss you and how every day I crave our sweet time together. Do you remember how we used to make cookies on a Sunday afternoon, with Grandma guiding my small hands? And how Grandpa always came too early from work just to participate in our little get-together? Those are moments forever carved in my heart.

I am still making cookies using the recipe you both gave me, although they hardly ever taste the same without your love added. I am doing well here; my life is as busy as a wasp -always on the run. Still, my mind always finds time to wander back to you.

Let's plan and have a little catch-up soon, just the three of us under the old maple tree in your backyard. I can already visualize cookies, lemonade, and lots of love. See you soon.

Sincerely,

[YOUR EMAIL]

Generations in Touch Leng Leng Thang, 2018-05-31 A dilemma long faced by western societies how to bring the generations together is also of growing concern in the east In Japan where until recently the extended family often lived under the same roof social programs designed to facilitate interaction between old and young have proliferated Leng Leng Thang offers an in depth view of one of those programs an unusual social welfare institution called Kotoen Kotoen is a pioneering facility for multigenerational living providing both daycare for preschoolers and a home for elderly residents With its twin mottoes of fureai being in touch and daikazoku large extended family it has been the subject of widespread media attention and has served as a model for other institutions Yet Kotoen has never before been studied seriously Under its director s inspiring leadership Kotoen looks unusually promising but Thang is wary of simplistic conclusions Her interviews research and work as a volunteer at Kotoen reveal the complaints common among some elderly residents toward their surroundings in old age institutions as well as the painful persistence of the traditional family ideal Yet far from calling the experiment a failure Thang challenges accepted wisdom and so called common sense to reveal the advantages and limitations of the relationships fostered between Kotoen s grandchildren and grandparents The lessons learned from Kotoen illuminate the urgency of re engaging the generations in an aging society and provide direction for improving the quality of life for all

Letters to Young Black Men Daniel

Whyte, III, 2005-08-01 Provides a collection of letters to young black men offering advice and encouragement The Grandparents' Little Idea Book Teri Harrison, 1996-05 Voices From the Heartland Carolyn Anne Taylor, Emily Dial-Driver, Sally Emmons-Featherston, Carole Burrage, 2012-11-27 A thought provoking collection of essays on life and living

Voices from the Heartland is a celebration of women's contributions to Oklahoma's recent past. It records defining moments in women's lives whether surviving the Oklahoma City bombing or surviving abuse and represents a wide range of professions, lifestyles, and backgrounds to show how extraordinary lives have grown from the seeds of ordinary girlhoods. From former Cherokee principal chief Wilma Mankiller to First Lady Kim Henry, novelist Billie Letts, and prima ballerina Maria Tallchief to OU basketball coach Sherri Coale, the authors share their personal reflections on finding balance as they look back on defining moments in their lives, mull over what they wish they had learned sooner, and convey the wisdom they've unearthed on their journeys thus far. Touching on topics from adultery to left-handedness, from losing children to losing perspective, these essays speak from the heart to reveal what it means to be an American woman today. Readers will meet activists and writers, advocates and artists, some of whom are household names while others work outside the public eye. Voices from the Heartland speaks to readers all across America and demonstrates that women in Oklahoma represent the heart of us all.

Out of the Shadow of Leprosy Claire Manes, 2013-04-10 In 1924, when thirty-two-year-old Edmond Landry kissed his family goodbye and left for the leprosarium in Carville, Louisiana, leprosy, now referred to as Hansen's disease, stigmatized and disfigured but did not kill. Those with leprosy were incarcerated in the federal hospital and isolated from family and community. Phones were unavailable, transportation was precarious, and fear was rampant. Edmond entered the hospital as did his four other siblings, but he did not surrender to his fate. He fought with his pen and his limited energy to stay connected to his family and to improve living conditions for himself and other patients. Claire Manes, Edmond's granddaughter, lived much of her life gripped by the silence surrounding her grandfather. When his letters were discovered, she became inspired to tell his story through her scholarship and his writing. Out of the Shadow of Leprosy: The Carville Letters and Stories of the Landry Family presents her grandfather's letters and her own studies of narrative and Carville during much of the twentieth century. The book becomes a testament to Edmond's determination to maintain autonomy and dignity in the land of the living dead. Letters and stories of the other four siblings further enhance the picture of life in Carville from 1919 to 1977.

Better Than Right: Elaine Eachus, 2021-04-30 After a disquieting trip to Palestine in 2014, which was immediately followed by the Second Intifada in Israel, she was blown off her life's course. In turmoil, she read extensively, looking for a refuge from the shock of her encounters. Rumi, Wendell Berry, Richard Rohr, Mary Oliver, Thomas Merton, the liberation theologians, and mystics lifted their lights for her. Better Than Right is one woman's steps toward meaning. Definitely not a superhighway, her story is full of twists and turns denoting her reflections and journey to make sense of life. She walks gingerly on a path that feels like a bewildered child caught in the crossfire of a bitter divorce. Her literary camera has both wide angle and close up lenses to catch the sweeps and the detail of her journey on the third planet from the sun Better Than Right invites you to see if her description resonates with your experience Better still does her light offer solace and hope for your next mile Peace in Truth Rev. Carrie D. Larson, MA, CCHT, 2014-03 This book is about learning everything we can from our lives Every moment waking or sleeping has a message for us about who we are and what we are on the earth to do It is exciting to understand this concept and to know how connected we really are to each other and to the universal energy that runs through all of us We can be quiet in meditation and receive this great energy and knowledge Forgiveness can bring our purpose in life closer to being fulfilled We are blessed with something to do in this life that will help others This is like throwing a pebble into a still pond The ripples of our actions in life can bring about wonderful growth and change in the entire world Look at the influence parents have on children and multiply that by thousands The world is ready for you Are you ready to experience your own fulfillment Inspiring Handwriting: A
