

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

important goal for teachers but it shouldn't end there. There is no one size fits all approach to teaching anymore. School districts that have begun to shift their focus from student engagement to student empowerment and from differentiation to personalized learning have seen a rise in test scores, motivation, attention, and self-confidence. When students have voice and choice, they gain control over their learning and their actions and feel empowered to work harder and achieve more. Through sample lessons, strategies, and applications, educators will learn how to shift from engagement to student empowerment, from differentiation to personalized learning, and practical ways to make these strategies work in the classroom. Move from engagement to student empowerment with A comprehensive guide to engaged learning A comprehensive guide to empowerment Research based best practices to promote empowerment Move from differentiation to personalized learning with A comprehensive guide to refining differentiation practices A comprehensive guide to personalized learning Practical ways to use voice and choice instructional design and classroom climate to promote student empowerment An entire chapter dedicated to the social and emotional learning side of personalized learning Digital content includes reproducible forms and a PDF presentation for professional development

Creating Equitable Classrooms Through Action Research Cathy Caro-Bruce, 2007-08 Recognizing the importance of race, class, gender, culture, and ability, the authors provide a window into the difficulties that professional educators grapple with as they face the challenge of teaching all children. This text is both authentic and practical and it demystifies the issues of equity that pervade today's classrooms. Diane Yendol Hoppey, Associate Professor, University of Florida, Gainesville. Action research of this caliber on the subject of equity is critically needed for all children to have access to the same level of rigor and high standards. This is a must read for districts that really want to turn action research into action that affects student learning. Terry Morganti Fisher, Director of Professional Development, Austin Independent School District, TX. Utilize the power of action research to narrow the achievement gap. Despite the best intentions of reform efforts, educational inequity continues to exist in public schools. Creating Equitable Classrooms Through Action Research confronts this challenge head on and shows educators how they can use action research to both raise student achievement and strengthen instructional leadership. Ideal for both a first time action research endeavor or one already in progress, this practical guidebook helps practitioners formulate specific research questions, collect and analyze data, and communicate their findings. Educators will discover Ten action research studies on narrowing the achievement gap. Guidelines for implementing an action research project that supports culturally relevant instruction. Authentic examples for discussion and reflection. Invaluable for school district leaders, teachers, professional development schools, and preservice teachers, this resource for systemwide improvement efforts helps schools provide more equitable learning environments for all children.

Youth Culture, Language Endangerment and Linguistic Survivance Leisy

Wyman,2012-07-03 Detailing a decade of life and language use in a remote Alaskan Yup ik community Youth Culture

Language Endangerment and Linguistic Survivance provides rare insight into young people's language brokering and Indigenous people's contemporary linguistic ecologies. This book examines how two consecutive groups of youth in a Yup'ik village negotiated eroding heritage language learning resources, changing language ideologies, and gendered subsistence practices while transforming community language use over time. Wyman shows how villagers used specific Yup'ik forms, genres, and discourse practices to foster learning in and out of school, underscoring the stakes of language endangerment. At the same time, by demonstrating how the youth and adults in the study used multiple languages, literacies, and translanguaging to sustain a unique subarctic way of life, Wyman illuminates Indigenous peoples' wide-ranging forms of linguistic survivance in an interconnected world. School and Home, 1922
