Grandchildren Barry Sims,2019-04-03 How did this book come about Actually it s the brainchild of my adult children who encouraged me to document the history of our family from before during and after the establishment of the Sims homestead in the eastern sector of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan in 1881 This endeavor quickly expanded to tracing my life in the family tree with the hope that it might be helpful for my grandchildren as they approach the challenges of their teenage years and beyond After all they are my messages to the future

The Writings of Thomas Jefferson Thomas Jefferson,1907

Princeton Alumni Weekly ,1918

Transnational Families, Migration and the Circulation of Care Loretta Baldassar,Laura Merla,2013-09-11 Without denying the difficulties that confront migrants and their distant kin this volume highlights the agency of family members in transnational processes of care in an effort to acknowledge the transnational family as an increasingly common family form and to question the predominantly negative conceptualisations of this type of family It re conceptualises transnational care as a set of activities that circulates between home and host countries across generations and fluctuates over the life course going beyond a focus on mother child relationships to include multidirectional exchanges across generations and between genders It highlights in particular how the sense of belonging in transnational families is sustained by the reciprocal though uneven exchange of caregiving which binds members together in intergenerational networks of reciprocity and obligation love and trust that are simultaneously fraught with tension contest and relations of unequal power The chapters that make up this volume cover a rich array of ethnographic case studies including analyses of transnational families who circulate care between developing nations in Africa Latin America and Asia to wealthier nations in North America Europe and Australia There are also examples of intra and extra European Australian and North American migration which involve the mobility of both the unskilled and working class as well as the skilled middle and aspirational classes
