Hands-On Social Studies, Grade 3 Jennifer Lawson, 2005 Hands On Social Studies for Ontario is filled with a year's worth of classroom tested activities. The grade 3 book is divided into two units: Communities in Canada 1780-1850 and Living and Working in Ontario. With materials for both teachers and students, this new edition includes many familiar great features: curriculum correlation charts, summary charts showing expectations, complete easy-to-follow lesson plans, visuals, and blackline masters, material lists, and hands-on student-centered activities. Exciting new features include photos, files that relate to the lesson topics, ideas for extending the learning opportunities for self-reflection and activating prior knowledge, authentic assessment for as and of learning opportunities, the five components of the inquiry model, concepts of social studies thinking, guided inquiry questions, and learning goals and support for developing historical thinking skills. Latitude and Longitude--Grid and Bear It! Hands-On Activity Sarah D. Giese, 2014-01-01 Make geography fun and interactive to motivate your students. Encourage teamwork, creativity, reflection, and decision making. Take an active approach to teaching while inspiring your students to make their own explorations of geography. Mapping My Day Julie Dilleuth, 2021-03-22 Follow Flora and her zany family as she takes us through her day with a series of vibrant and interactive maps. In our current GPS-ruled world, map reading is something of a dying art. But learning to read, understand, and draw maps is a fun and active way for children to develop spatial thinking skills. How we think about and understand the world around us and use concepts of space for problem solving. Early exposure to maps' concepts can help foster this type of cognitive development in children and boost their math and science learning as they progress through school. Each hand-drawn kid-friendly map highlights key map concepts in the context of a story or puzzle. Figure out which route to school is the fastest, how to find Flora's buried treasure, and even how to complete a dog agility course. Includes a Note to Parents, Caregivers, and Professionals with more information about maps and spatial concepts, as well as questions, games, and activities designed to encourage children to map their own days. From the Note to Parents, Caregivers, and Professionals. For readers of all ages, the three goals of this book are to: 1. show readers that maps can convey many types of information. Maps can tell all sorts of stories, sometimes more easily than with words. 2. inspire kids to draw their own maps and diagrams. Drawing spatial relationships is an excellent way to develop this spatial skill, and understanding spatial relationships is important for many aspects of life, including math and science learning. 3. introduce basic map concepts and vocabulary and demonstrate why they are important. Each map in the story highlights just one or two map concepts at a time: compass rose, scale bar, legend, etc., which are necessary for understanding that particular map. Magellan Mapping Module Cynthia A. Miller, 1992 Social Studies Laurie E. Westphal, 2007 Differentiating Instruction With Menus offers teachers everything they need to create a student-centered learning environment based on choice. Addressing the four main subject areas: language arts, math, science, and social studies, and the major concepts taught within these areas, these books provide a number of different types of menus that elementary aged students can use to select exciting products that they will develop so teachers can assess what has been learned instead of using a traditional worksheet format Each book contains attractive reproducible menus each based on the levels of Bloom's revised taxonomy for students to use to guide them in making decisions as to which products they will develop after studying a major concept or unit Using creative and challenging choices found in Tic Tac Toe Menus List Menus 2 5 8 Menus Baseball Menus and Game Show Menus students will look forward to sharing their newfound knowledge throughout the year Also included are specific guidelines for products rubrics for assessing student products and teacher introduction pages for each menu This book includes menus that teach students about ancient history American history government U S documents people in history and geography Orienteering Made Simple and Gps Technology Nancy Kelly,2012-09-28 This book is designed to teach orienteering and GPS technology as an educational tool in the school curriculum The book uses a multidisciplinary approach to foster self confidence cooperative learning team building problem solving decision making and love for the outdoors The activities are adaptable to a wide variety of grade levels and can be used in most subject areas The book includes a series of hands on activities worksheets and interactive lessons that are fun and educational letting the students learn through exploration and problem solving First Step Nonfiction-Community Buildings Teaching Guide LernerClassroom Editors,2009-08-01 FIRST STEP NONFICTION COMMUNITY BUILDINGS TEACHING GUIDE

Foundations of Education: Instructional strategies for teaching children and youths with visual impairments M. Cay Holbrook,Alan J. Koenig,2000 Hands-on History: Geography Activities Sarah D. Giese,2006-05-16 Make history fun and interactive to motivate your social studies students This book includes game formatted activities for major historical topics While the goal of these activities is to create excitement and to spark interest in further study they are also standards based and include grading rubrics and ideas for assessment Encouraging teamwork creativity intelligent reflection and decision making the games of Hands on History Activities will help you take an active approach to teaching while inspiring your students to make their own explorations of history This resource is aligned to the interdisciplinary themes from the Partnership for 21st Century Skills 176pp Insect Behavior Janice R. Matthews,2019-04-08 Interest in insect behavior is growing rapidly as reflected both in courses devoted fully to the topic and in its inclusion in general biology ecology invertebrate zoology and animal behavior as well as general entomology curricula Instructors and students find that insects are in many ways uniquely suitable animals for behavioral study the Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies Andrew P. Johnson,2006 Making Connections in Elementary and Middle School Social Studies is based on the idea that students learn more and are more motivated to learn when they are able to connect their own knowledge observations ideas imagination and emotions with the content at hand This book demonstrates how personal connections can be incorporated into social studies education while meeting NCSS thematic pedagogical and disciplinary standards It is written in a very direct reader friendly style Each chapter describes a variety of practical strategies and creative activities that novice and experienced teachers can use to make social studies more interesting and to help students make meaningful personal and academic connections Each chapter contains a wealth of classroom strategies pedagogical techniques activities and lesson plan ideas that can be used to enhance learning and make lessons more interesting active and student centered The book covers the three types of standards that elementary and middle school teachers work with as they teach social studies o Thinking Ahead questions invite the reader to reflect on his her own experiences as they relate to the material covered in the next chapter These can be used as discussion points for a class or small group or simply as pre reading prompts to enhance comprehension o Teachers in Action boxes contain real life narratives from practicing teachers These cases are designed to expand upon key issues presented in each chapter Every case is accompanied by the author s personal reflection on the case These reflections are intended to give the reader an opinion against which he she can measure his her own reactions After each case the reader is prompted to think about the narrative presented and think about the way that his her reactions compare with those presented by the author o Go There boxes provide links to Web sites that offer additional resources for teachers lesson plans and other activities to enhance a social studies classroom This text is accompanied by a dynamic Instructor s Resources CD The CD includes classroom video footage that can be shown in class to illustrate the concepts presented in the book and stimulate class discussion The Carnival Committee Susan
