Positive Psychology in Higher Education Acacia Parks, 2014-01-21
Positive psychology the scientific study of happiness is a rapidly burgeoning field and in no area more so than education More departments than ever are offering courses in positive psychology and demand for these courses is consistently high

Graduate programs offering concentrations in positive psychology have appeared at both masters and doctoral level Educational institutions have expressed interest in using principles of positive psychology to inform institutional structure faculty development and pedagogy Positive psychology has been taught and applied in higher education for almost as long as it has existed as a field but there is little in the way of published literature that brings all of these developments together The chapters in this volume represent the use of positive psychology at all levels of higher education from institutional practices and curricular development to pedagogy and the teaching of positive psychology content itself This book provides an in depth look at this exciting area of applied positive psychology which will be relevant to educators and administrators alike This book is based on a special issue of The Journal of Positive Psychology African Film Foluke Ogunleye,2014-03-17 African Film Looking Back and Looking Forward acknowledges all those filmmakers and film scholars who through their productions and theorization have made a difference to the filmic universe in Africa Their substantial contribution reflects our world and has the potential to change our lives The book adopts an interdisciplinary character traversing as it does the diverse subjects of politics economics and history among others It interrogates Africa s filmic past analyses current productions projects into the future of the film in Africa and deals with the nature of the filmmaking profession This book contributes to the growing literature on the African film and will provide the opportunity for filmmakers academics and students to learn about the history theories problems and various approaches to production marketing gender issues race and legal issues and a host of other subjects that impinge upon the African film
