A second, more important idea, is that people's actions are not always the result of conscious choice. In fact, many of our actions are controlled by a complex system of unconscious processes. This is the idea of the unconscious mind. The unconscious mind is the part of the mind that is not aware of its own processes. It is the part of the mind that is not aware of its own thoughts, feelings, and actions. The unconscious mind is the part of the mind that is not aware of its own processes.
