Better Now Than Never Risel Buhler,2014-07-14 Just as Bill and Dawn were enjoying their life and were free to do as they liked things changed in a blink of an eye Dawn was so devastated that she briefly lost her sense of direction This incident caused problems between her and her good friend Marie Dawn felt the best thing to do was for her and her young son to pack up and move to her cottage on the West coast This led to a new relationship but was it something else beside love that drew her to him When the past again raised it s ugly head Dawn was frustrated and angry Could anything from the past be good Was it possible for her to truly love someone again Dawn's Early Light Johnny Sundstrom,2011-11-16 The year was 1849 The wagon train moved slowly along the parched Oregon Trail in the empty desolation that was to become known as southern Wyoming Martha Bradford was told she must discard either her cast iron cook stove or her pianola to lighten the burden for the oxen She has them both unloaded and then refuses to go on any further She declared that if the only things that made her life worth living were being left behind they d just as well leave both the stove and the pianola and her with them This novel is based on the next six generations of her family and the first ranch settled in that part of the country Here are real cowboys and cowgirls Indians of the past and present a faith challenged evangelist a militant suffragette newspaper owner and many others linked together by their hard work rowdy pleasures their spiritual beliefs or non beliefs and stitched into a panoramic story quilt representing the dream of the Morning Star and its hopeful annunciation of a new day rising in the Old West The Boy's Own Annual ,1900 Teachers who Teach Teachers Tom Russell,F. A. J. Korthagen,Fred A. J. Korthagen,1995 Teachers Who Teach Teachers is a major contribution to an emerging literature in which teacher educators are beginning to explore the new challenges facing those who care about the quality of teaching in schools and in teacher education programmes In this volume the contributors consider the personal development of both new and experienced teacher educators illustrating just how strongly teacher educators are influenced by their visions and by the challenge to prove themselves in the university setting They look at ways in which teacher educators have acted to promote their own professional development and study their own practices including writing as a tool for reflection Finally the contributors take a broader look at the professional development of teacher educators and the challenge to all teacher educators to consider the tension between rigour and relevance The Vanished Captain's Ring Bambi Harris,2009-11 Susan Richards a young Australian woman has arranged to meet and stay with her uncle at his place in a suburb of London England where her father is buried When she visits her father s grave she discovers an old photograph on the headstone of a MIA navy captain from WWI Soon after she finds a strange ring on the bank of the River Thames a ring that causes her to dream of a man and a
