NASA's Human Space Exploration United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation. Subcommittee on Science and Space, 2012 Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2014 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies, 2013 , Proportionality and Facts in Constitutional Adjudication Anne Carter, 2022-01-27 This book considers the relationship between proportionality and facts in constitutional adjudication Analysing where facts arise within each of the three stages of the structured proportionality test suitability necessity and balancing it considers the nature of these facts vis vis the facts that arise in the course of ordinary litigation The book's central focus is on how proportionality has been applied by courts in practice and it draws on the comparative experience of four jurisdictions across a range of legal systems The central case study of the book is Australia where the embryonic and contested nature of proportionality means it provides an illuminating study of how facts can inform the framing of constitutional tests The rich proportionality jurisprudence from Germany Canada and South Africa is used to contextualise the approach of the High Court of Australia and to identify future directions for proportionality in Australia at a time when the doctrine is in its formative stages The book has three broad aims First it considers the role of facts within proportionality reasoning Second it offers procedural insights into fact finding in constitutional litigation Third the book's analysis of the dynamic Australian case law on proportionality means it also serves to clarify the nature and status of proportionality in Australia at a critical moment Since the 2015 decision of McCloy v New South Wales where four justices supported the introduction of a structured three part test of proportionality the Court has continued to disagree about the utility of such a test These developments mean that this book with its doctrinal and comparative approach is particularly timely Q & A

Diary of an Apprentice Astronaut Samantha

Cristoforetti, 2020-08-27 I read a lot of writings by astronauts in my research for Orbital but this was my go to It s written with clarity generosity humour humility and heart Samantha Harvey Today I woke up on Earth And I will fall asleep in space In space the sun rises and sets 16 times a day You fly over every sea every mountain and desert every city and every port The most ordinary things eating sleeping brushing your teeth or cutting your hair have to be relearned until they become familiar again This is the story of Samantha Cristoforetti s incredible journey to becoming an astronaut and her journey beyond Earth Her voyage as an apprentice astronaut began when she was in her early thirties five years of intense training around the world from Houston to Japan to the legendary Star City in Russia Countless hours spent in centrifuges spaceship simulators and under water for spacewalk practice Then one day a rocket was waiting for her on the launch pad And after eight minutes of wild ascent she was on orbit crunched up with her two crewmates in a tiny spaceship that took them to the International Space Station With honesty and warmth Cristoforetti chronicles the two hundred days she spent on the ISS the joys and challenges of being in an extraordinary place from the sublime sight of seeing Earth for the first time to more unusual concerns such as mastering the art of floating How do you find your bearings when there is no up and down What is it like to run in weightlessness And how do you cook in space This is an enthralling inspiring and surprisingly down to earth story about what it really takes to pursue your dreams
